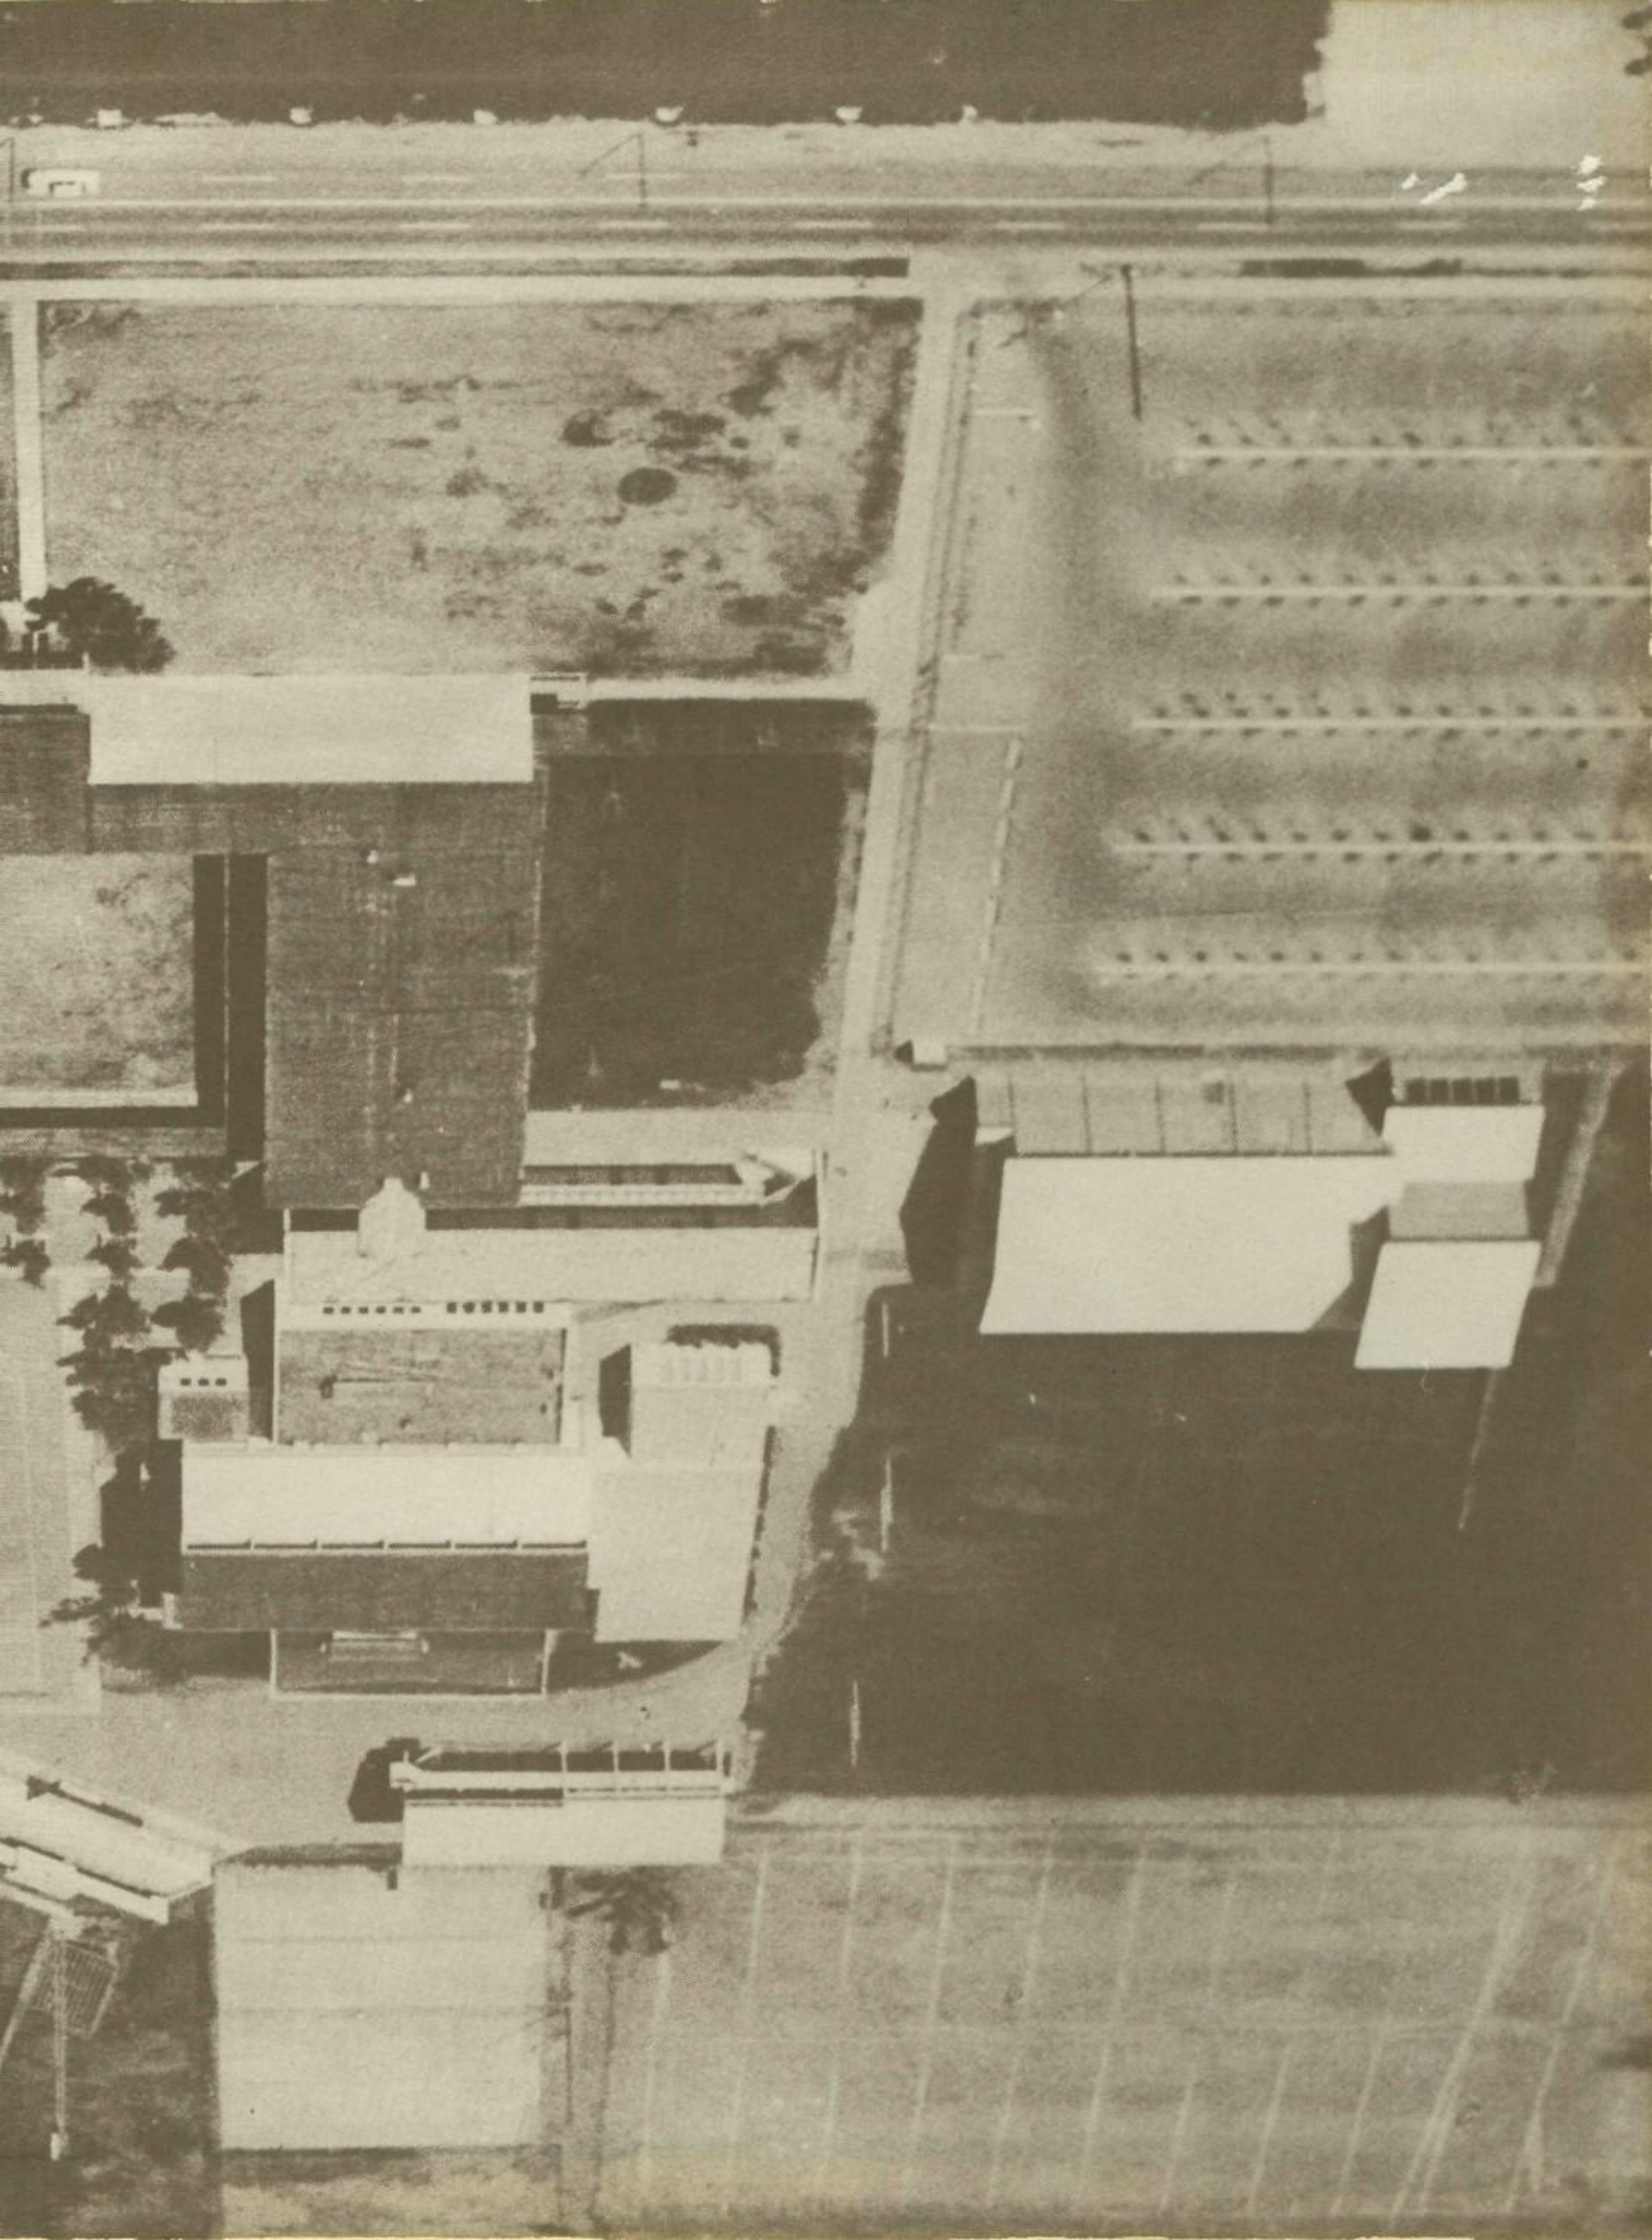
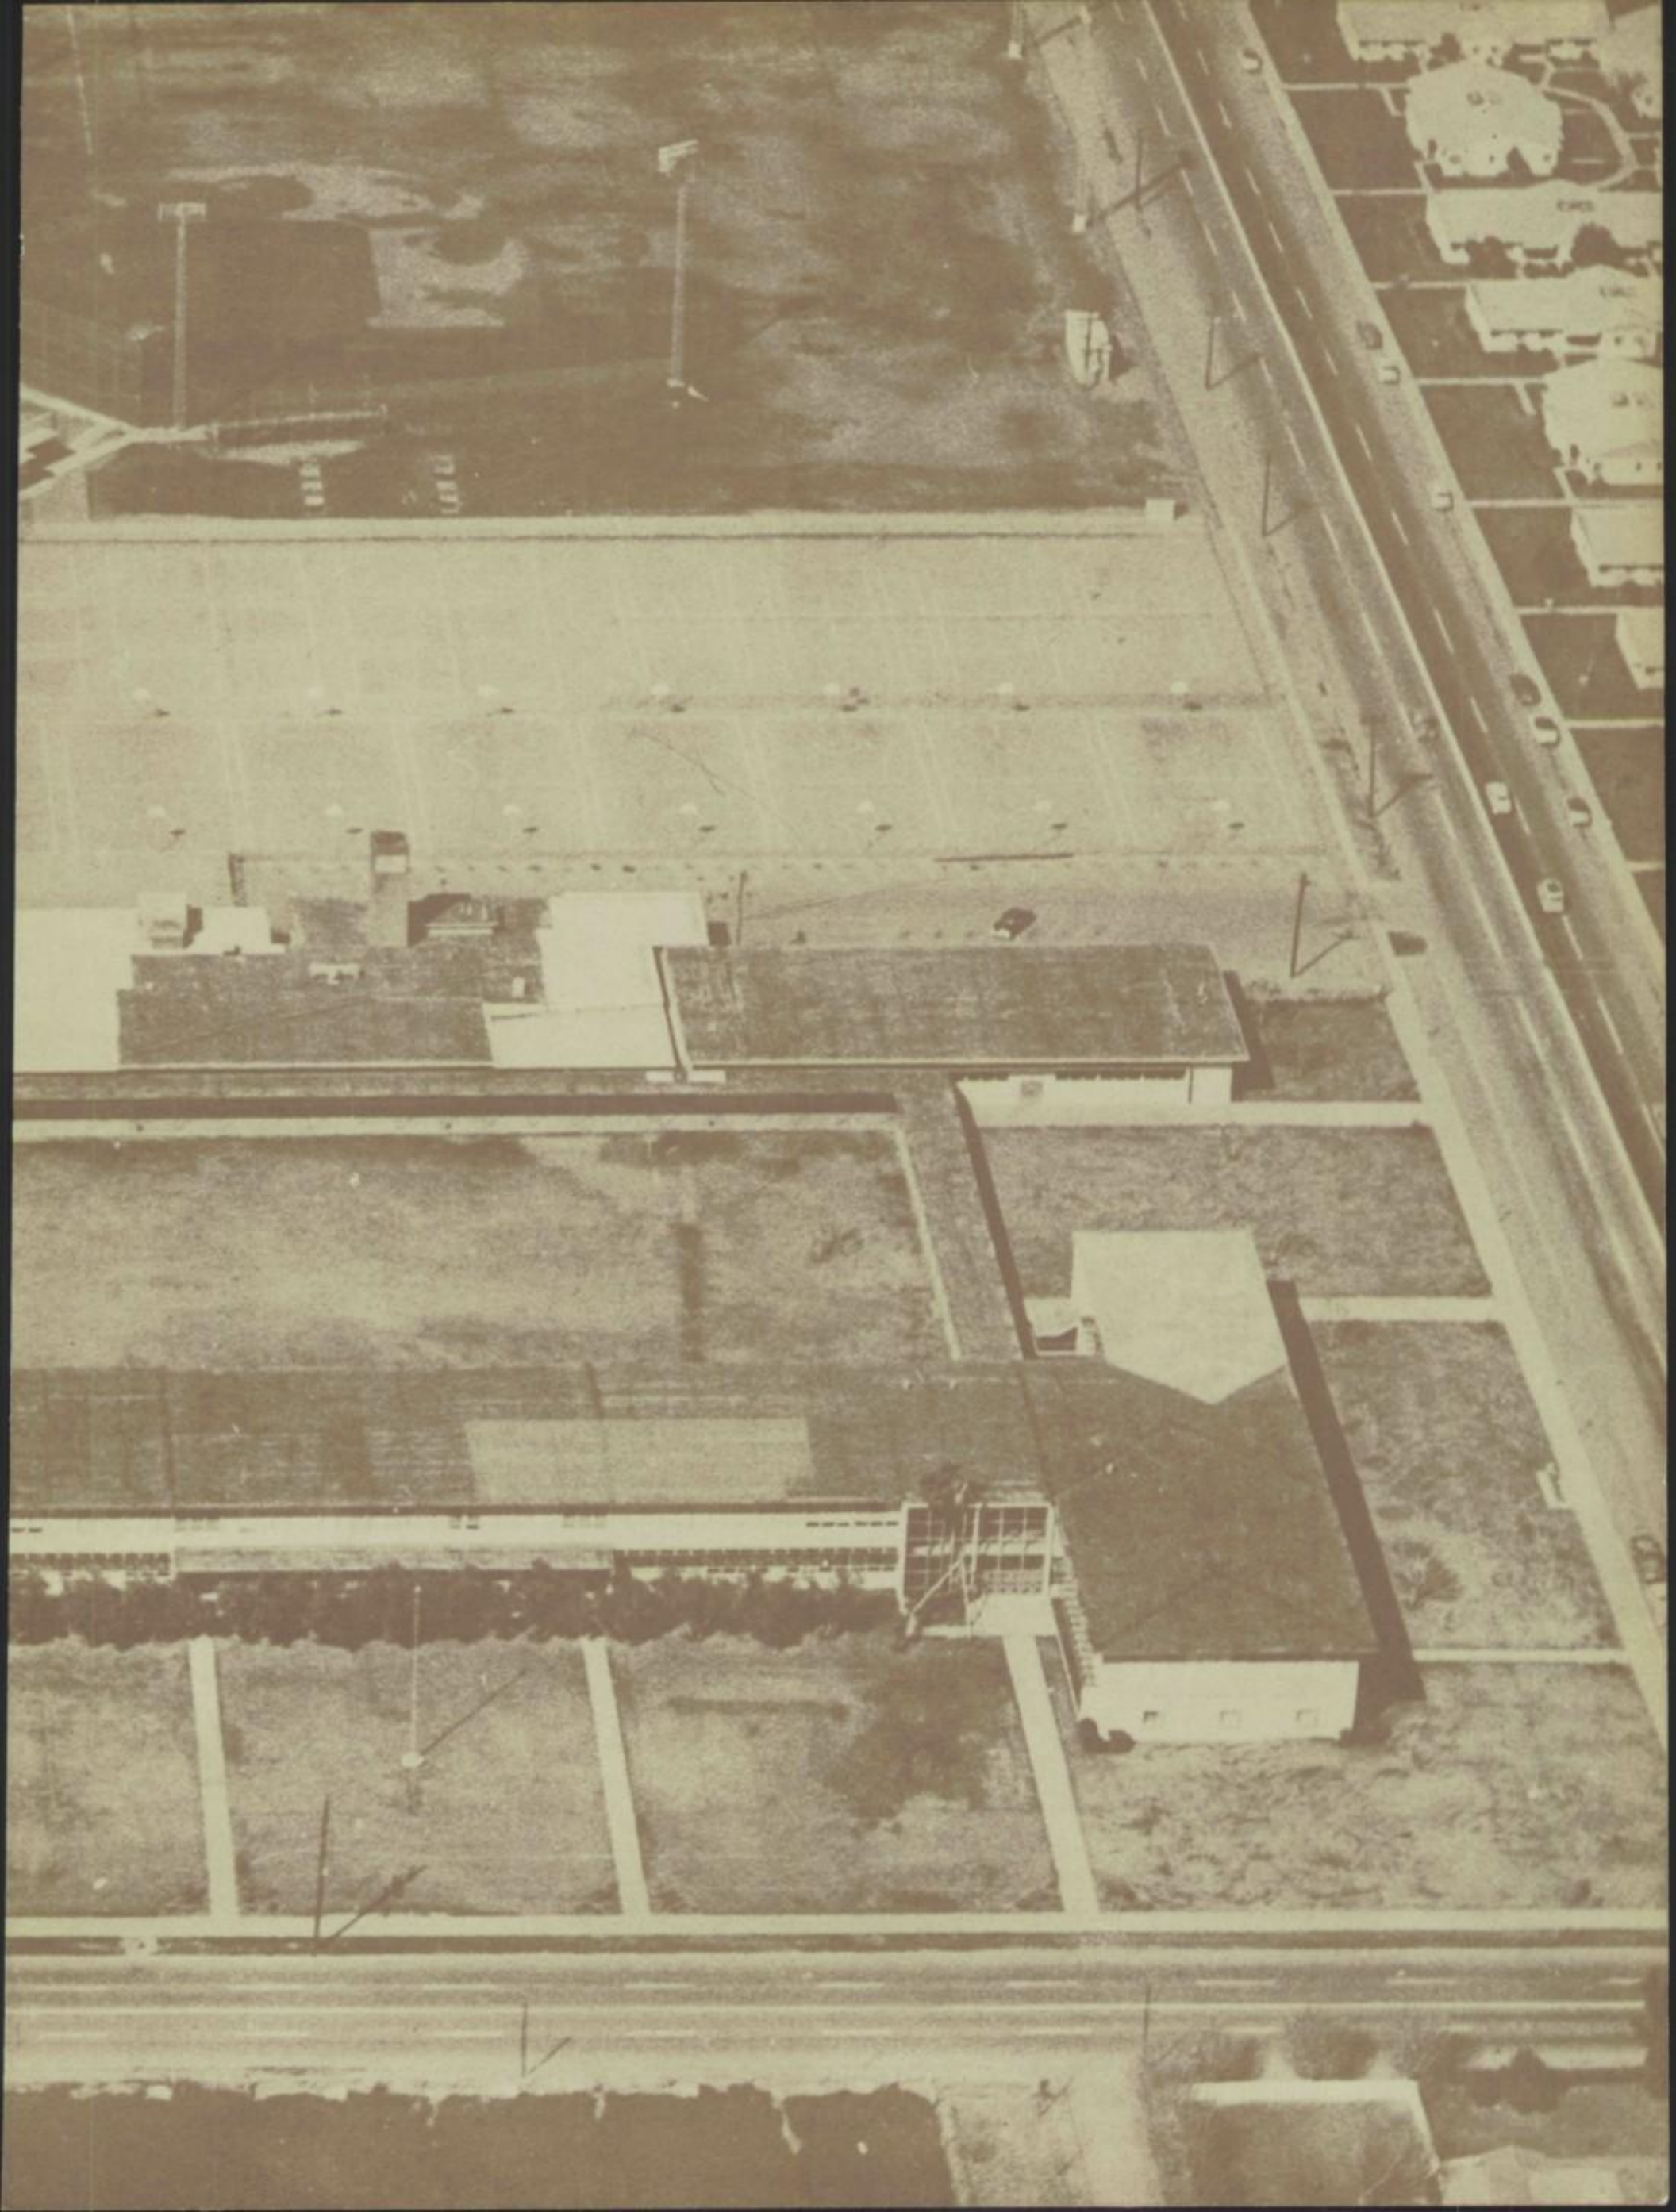
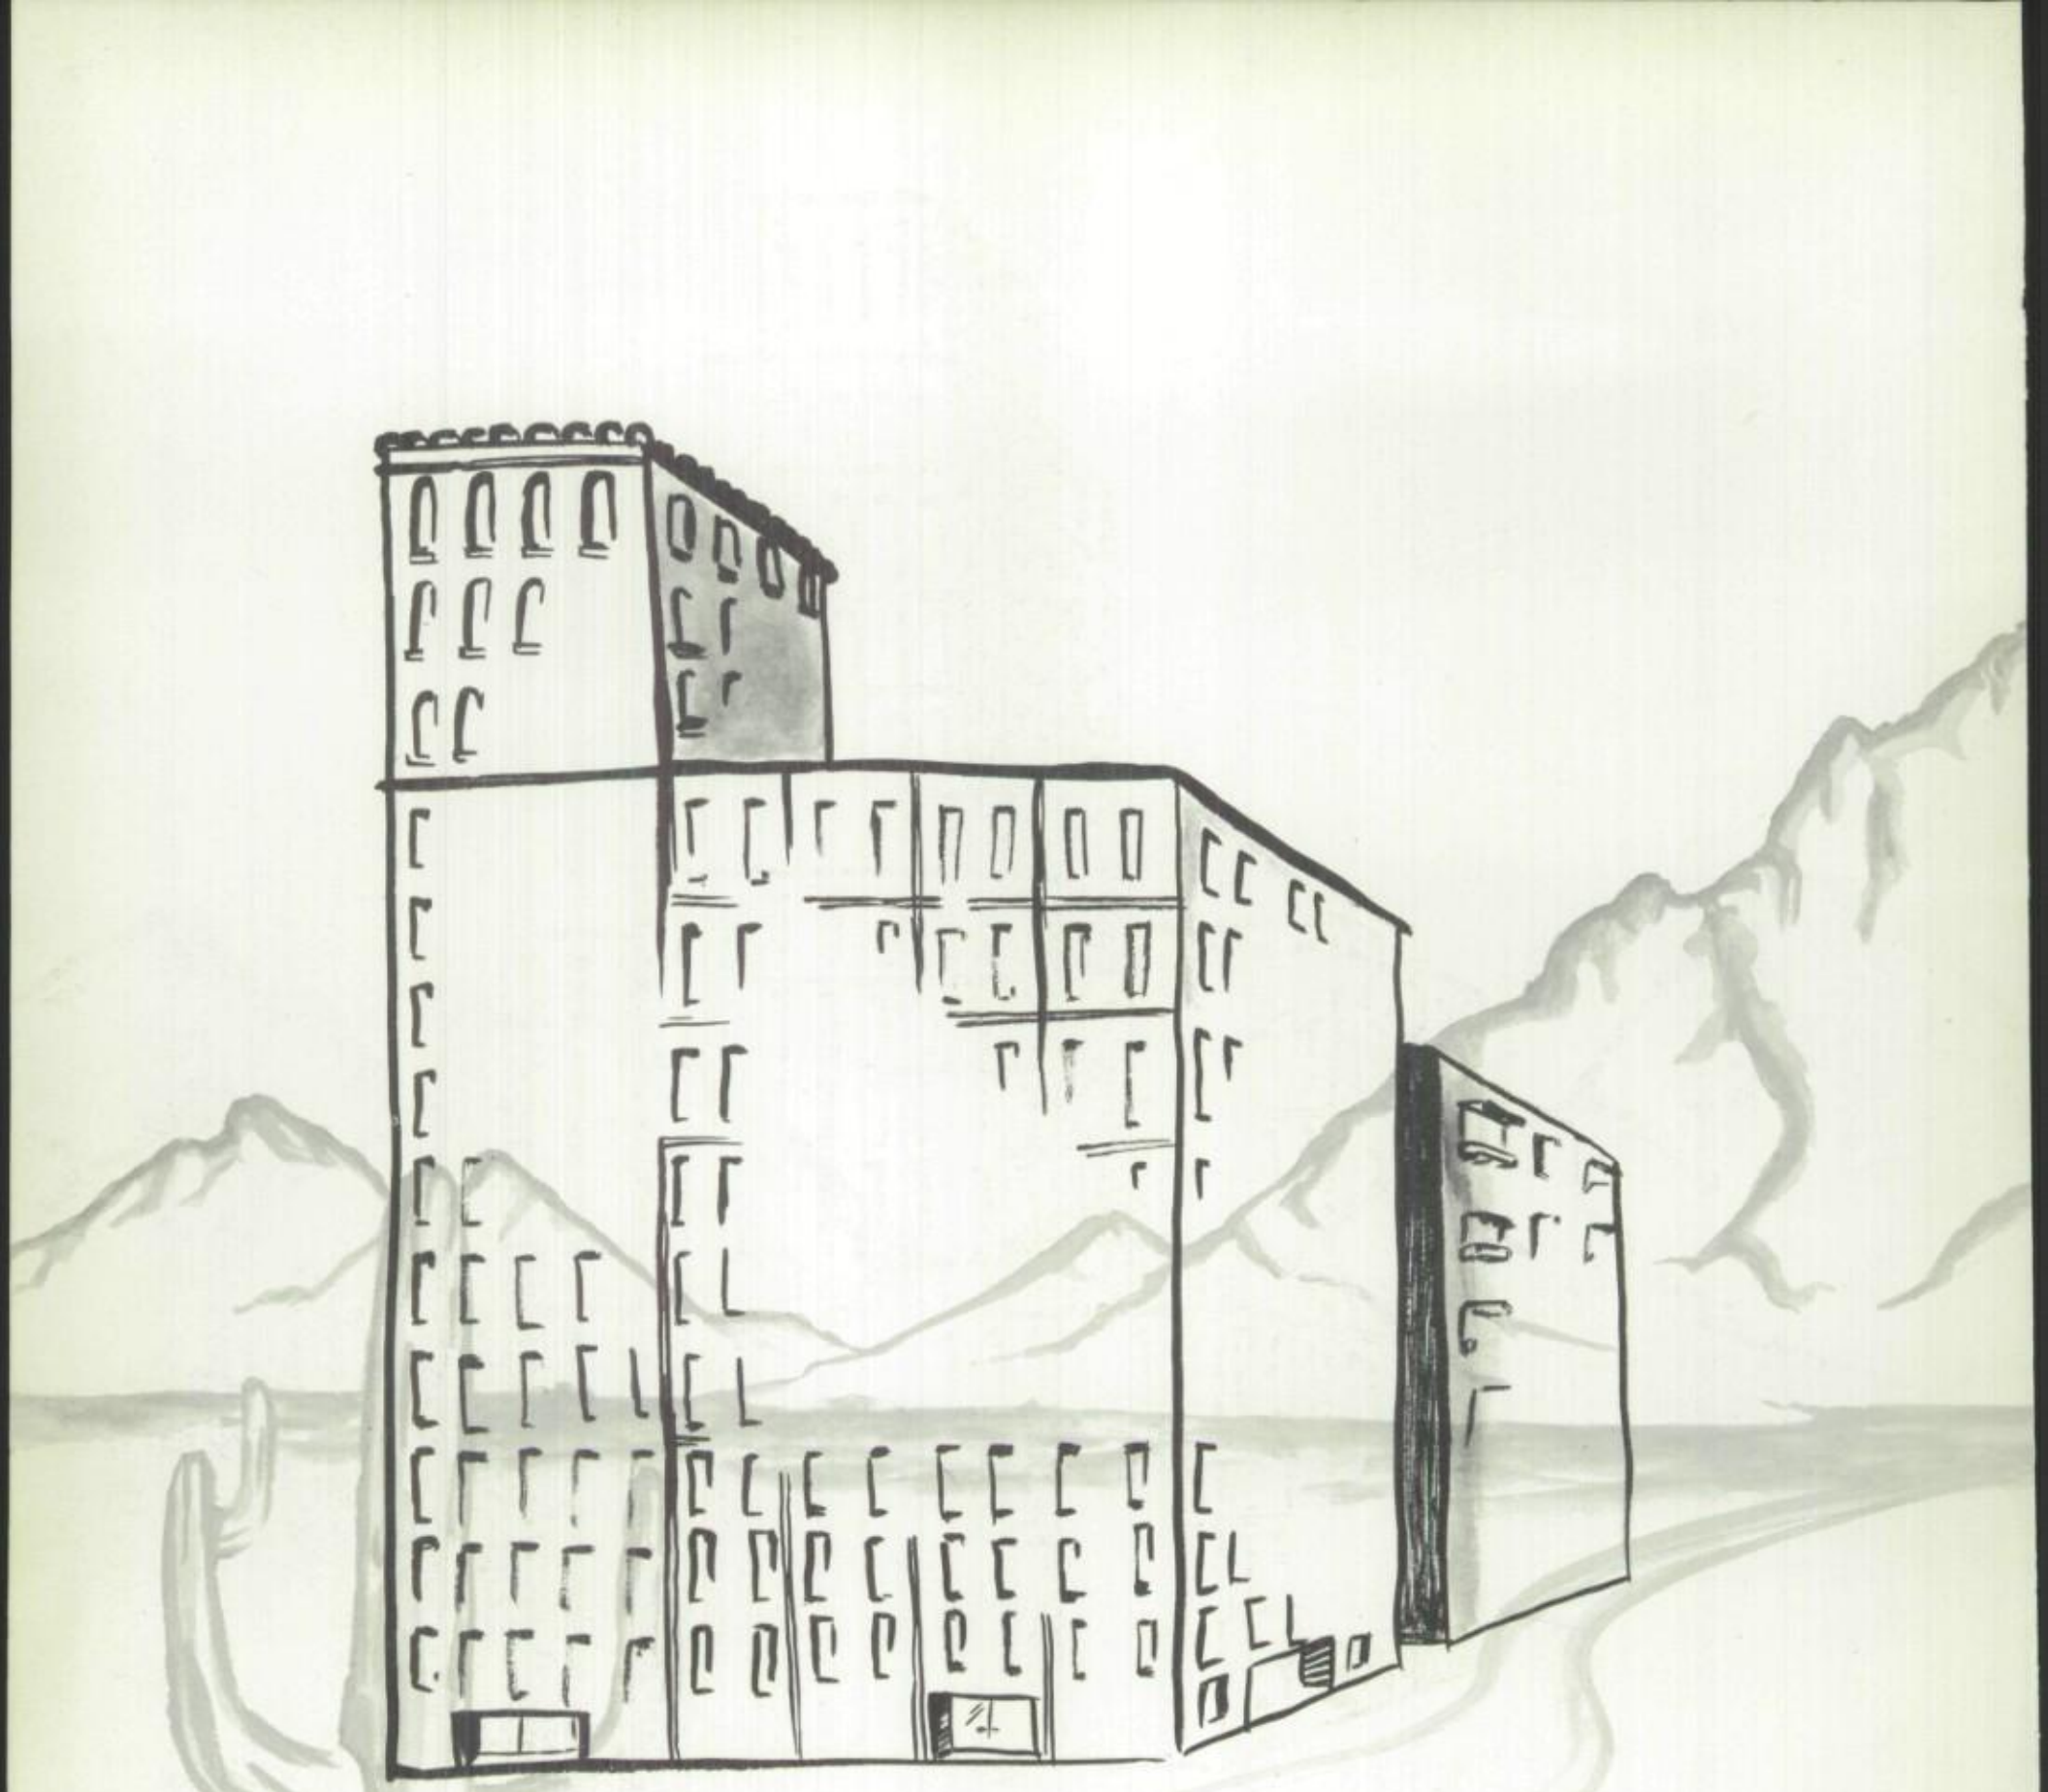
Westerner







This is the new West – modernistic and progressive. It has grown from vast, empty fields and desert into great cities alive with productivity and people and government. Now it is not merely a scenic beauty but an elegant drama of life.

This, too, is a new West – a modernistic and progressive educational institution. Not long ago here stand an empty, vast field, now one of the finest schools in the nation. A new West with a new, long-awaited auditorium, with new teachers and students, new ideas, new goals, new leaders, new problems, new honors and new achievements, it is always moving to the tempo of tomorrow, and each year it becomes newer, capturing in its structural splendor a touch of all those who have given and shall give a part of their lives and their youth to form its soul.

THIS IS THE NEW WEST – . . .

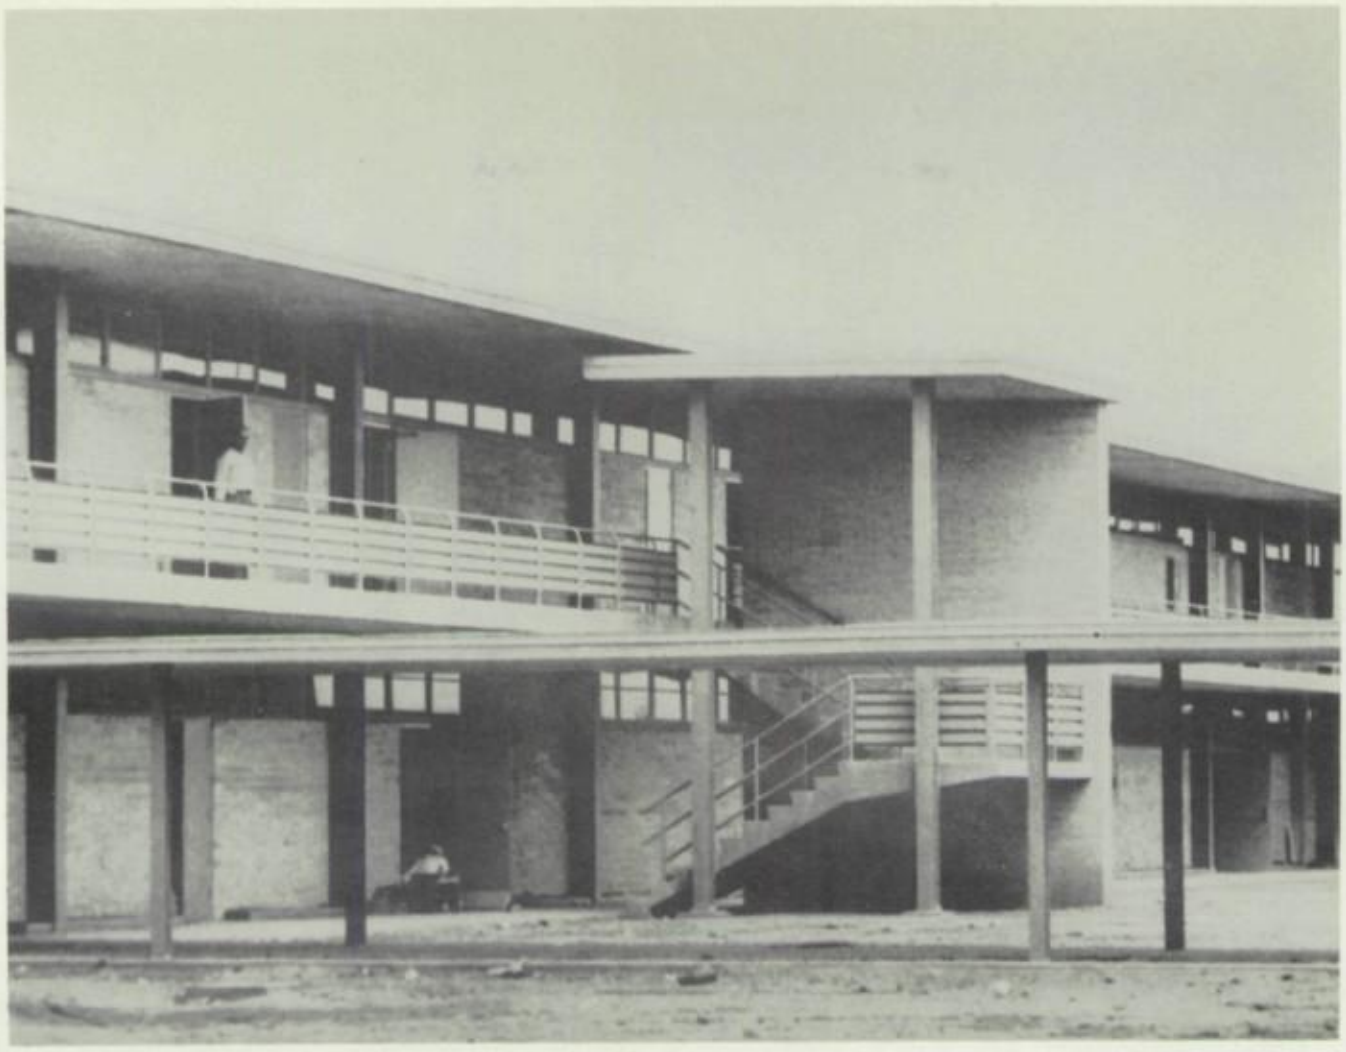
Dedicated to Dr. HAROLD L. GEAR

Dr. Harold L. Gear's new appointment to the office of superintendent of the Phoenix Union High School district marks a new epoch in the history of West Phoenix High School. The initial development has been completed; now ours is to build onto our maturity unending superstructures of greatness. And under Dr. Gear's supervision, we shall. We shall rise with great speed to great heights, as he has.

Only two years ago Dr. Gear came to Phoenix from Ohio to be principal of North Phoenix High School. Last year he was made assistant superintendent of the entire PUHS district, and this year he was awarded the superintendency.

West Phoenix High School welcomes Dr. Gear with hopes for his happiness and success. We dedicate our 1954 WESTERNER to him—a symbol of our second era—a symbol of a new beginning.



The two new high schools in Phoenix, Camelback (above) and South Mountain (below), will help ease the crowdedness of the other four city high schools. The schools opened this year with very small student bodies, but within a few short years they are expected to rank with West, North, Union, and Tech. West High welcomes these two fine new schools into the Phoenix Union System's "family."

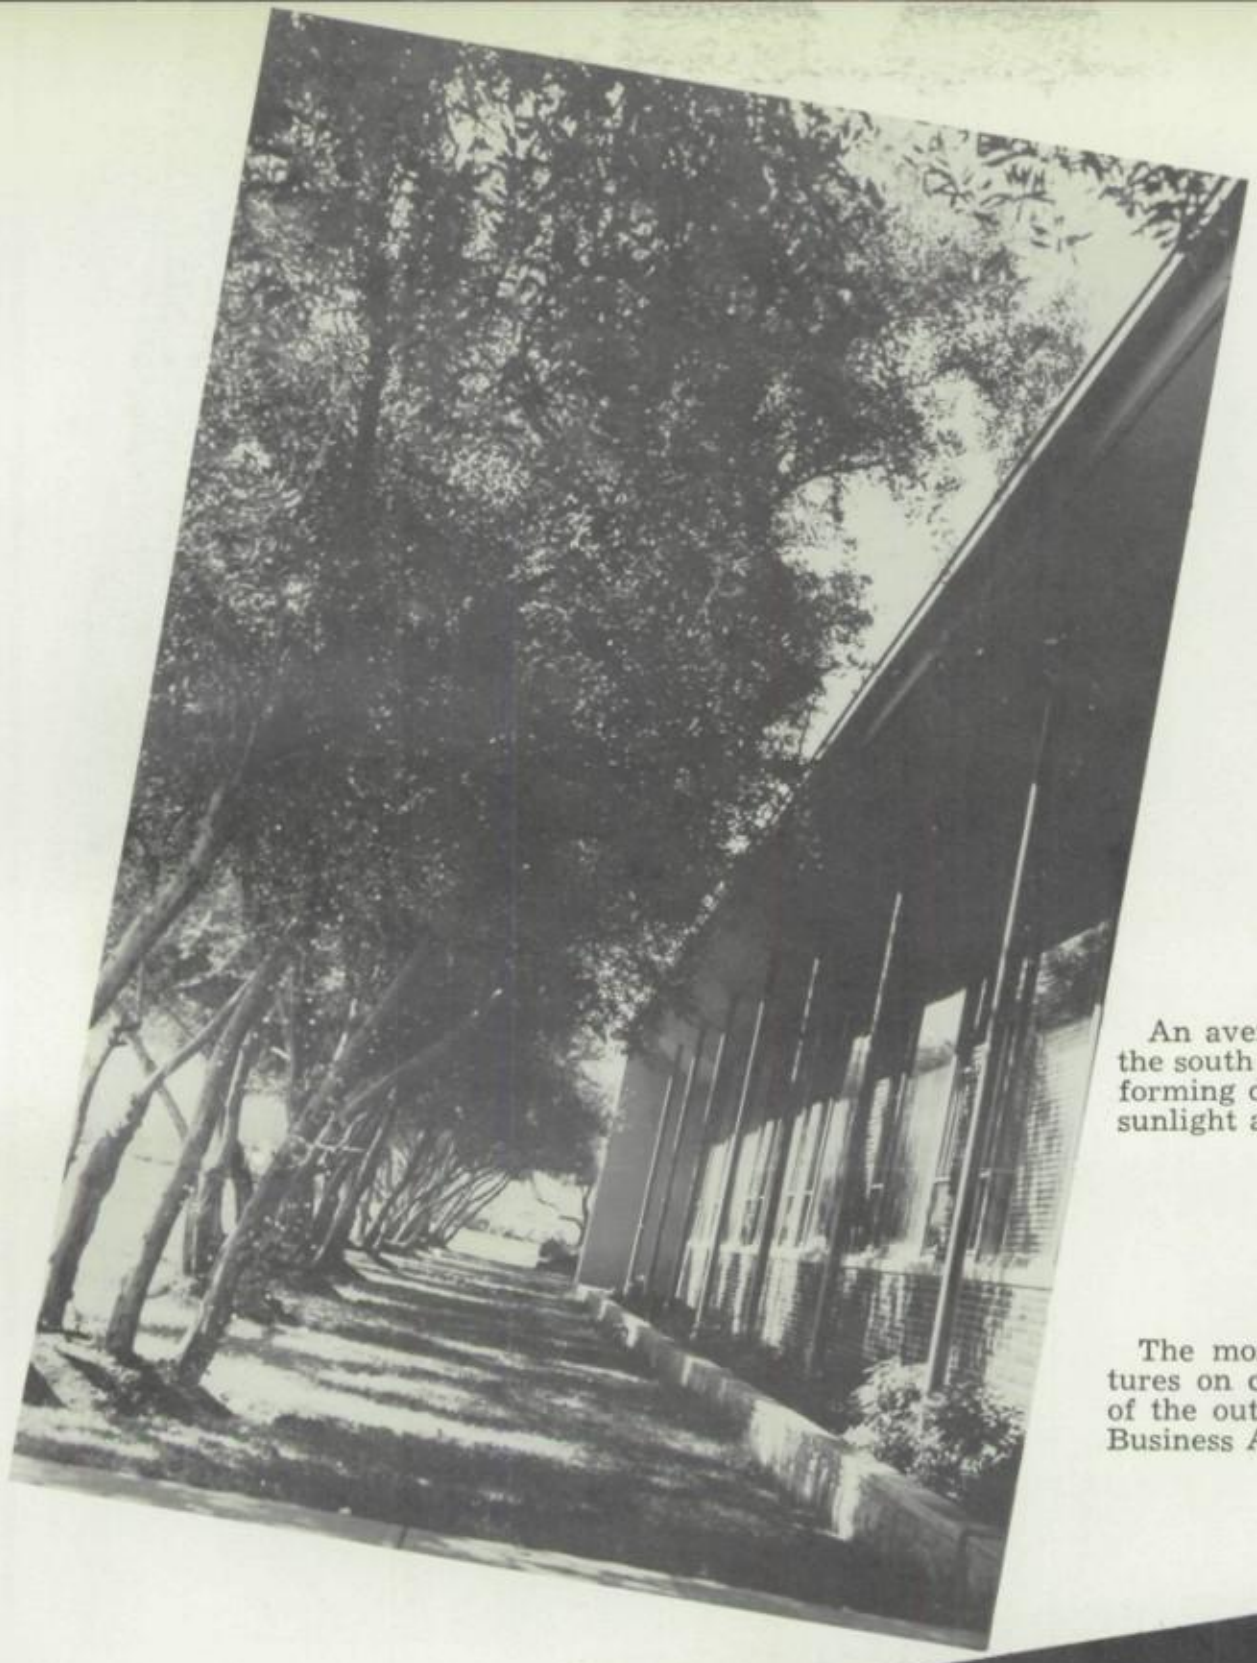
BUILDING SHOTS

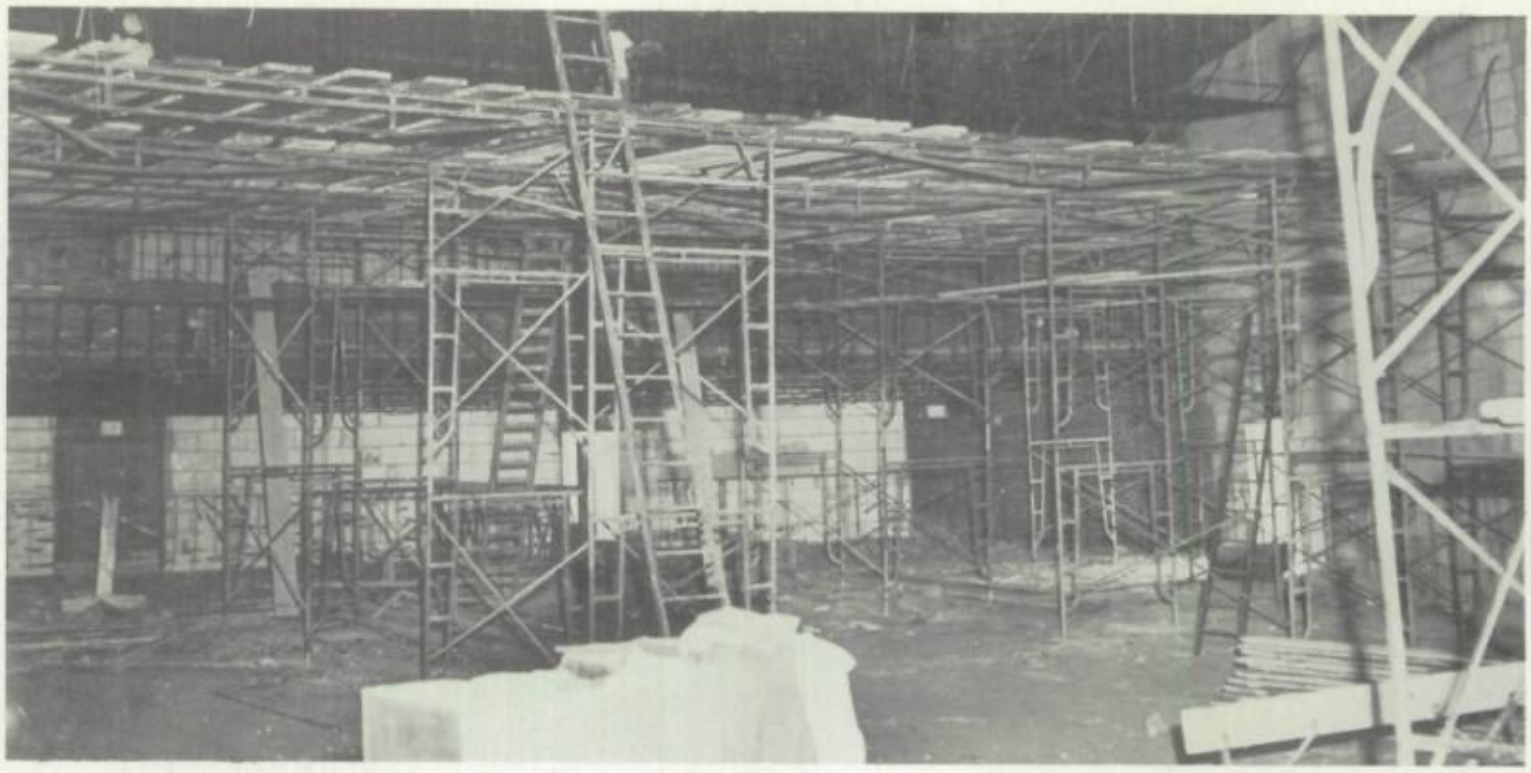
Cushioned against a background of clouds, a pair of giant palms rise high above the building.

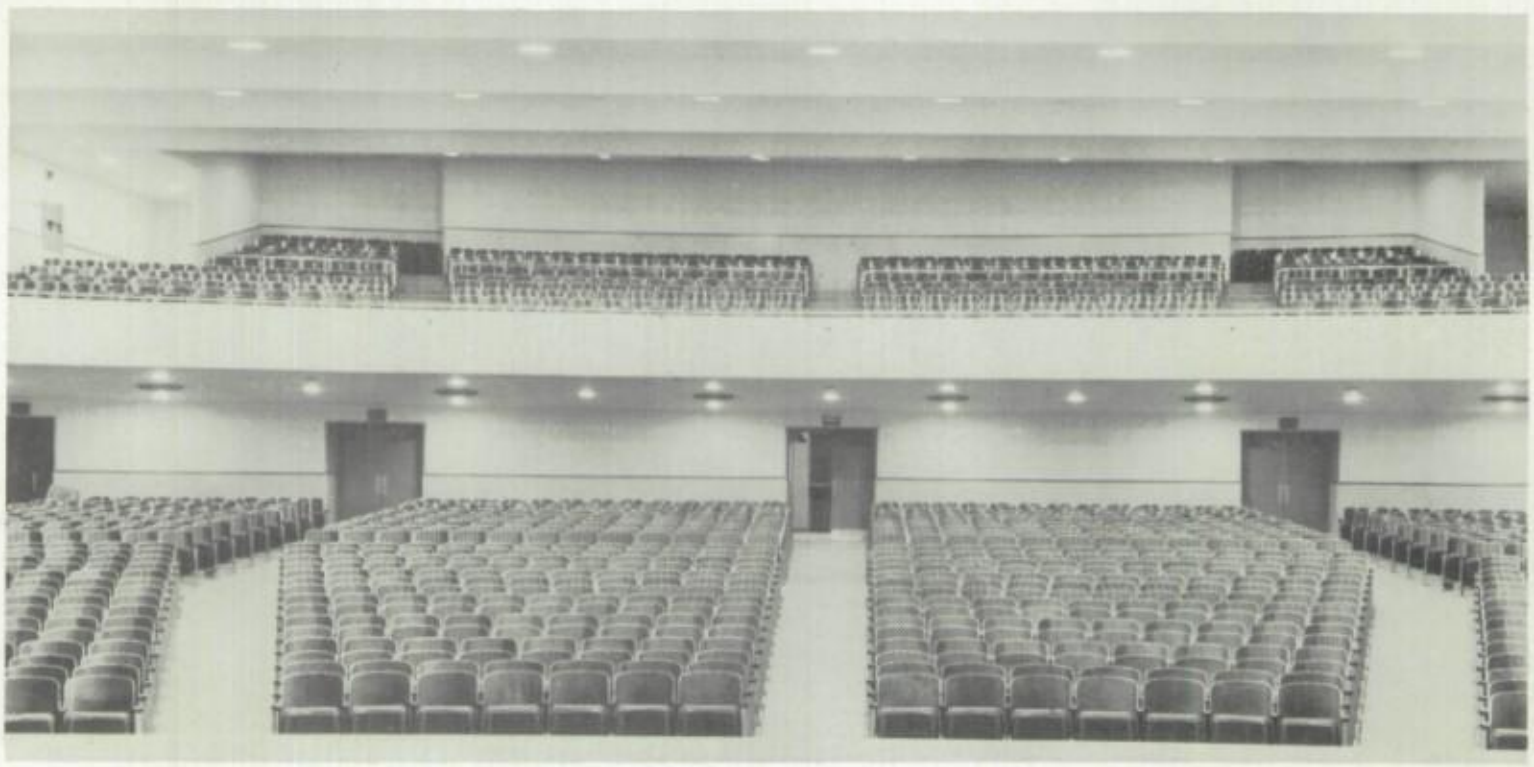
As seen from the center of the quad, the main building is strikingly modernistic.

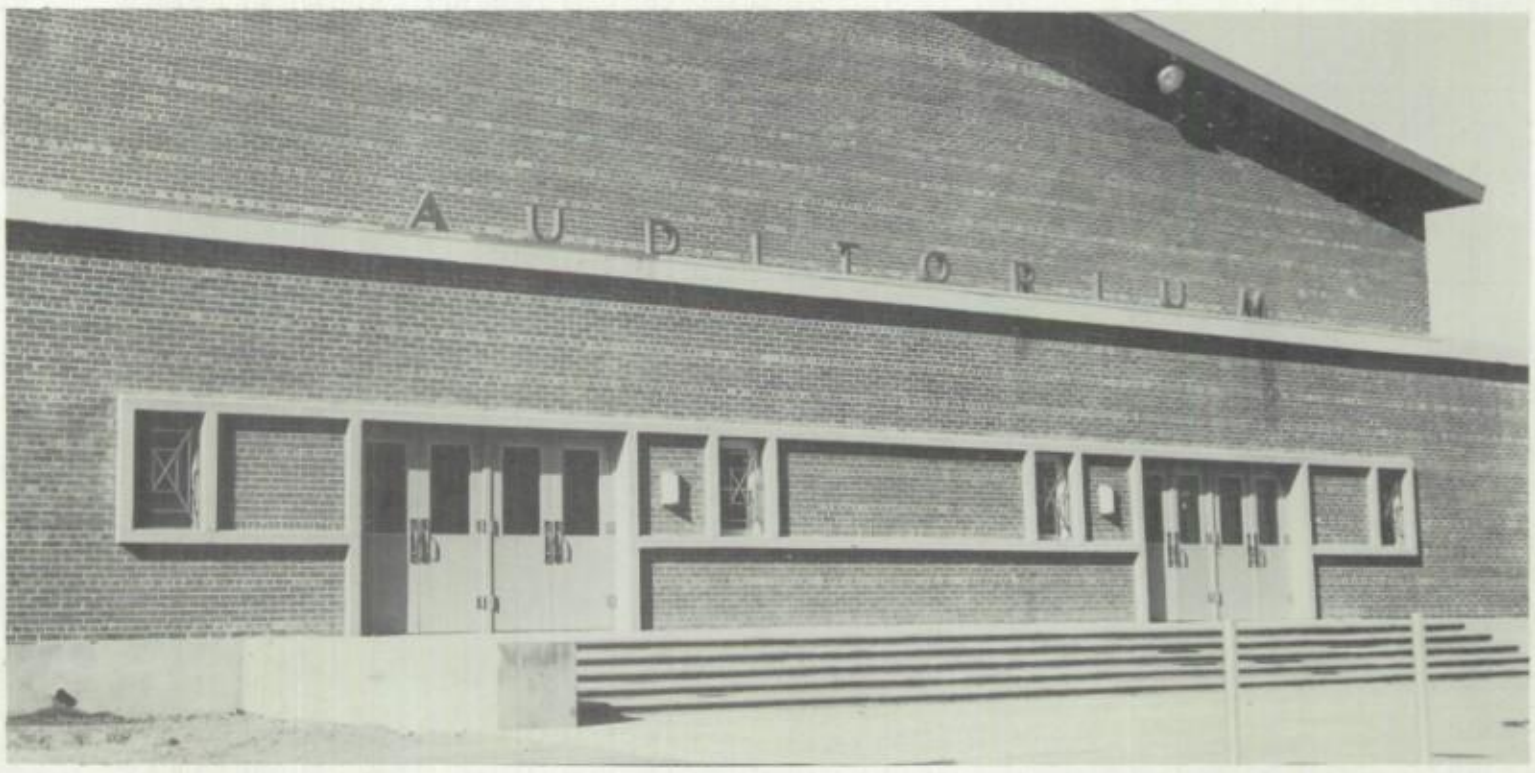


An avenue of slender olive trees shades the south side of the Liberal Arts building, forming delicate and beautiful patterns of sunlight against the facade.

The most striking of architectural features on campus is the unusual structure of the outside stairway leading up to the Business Administration wing.







An accomplished dream, the West High Auditorium is admired by all who view its fine construction, its spacious and comfortable interior, and the beautifully inviting front entrance.

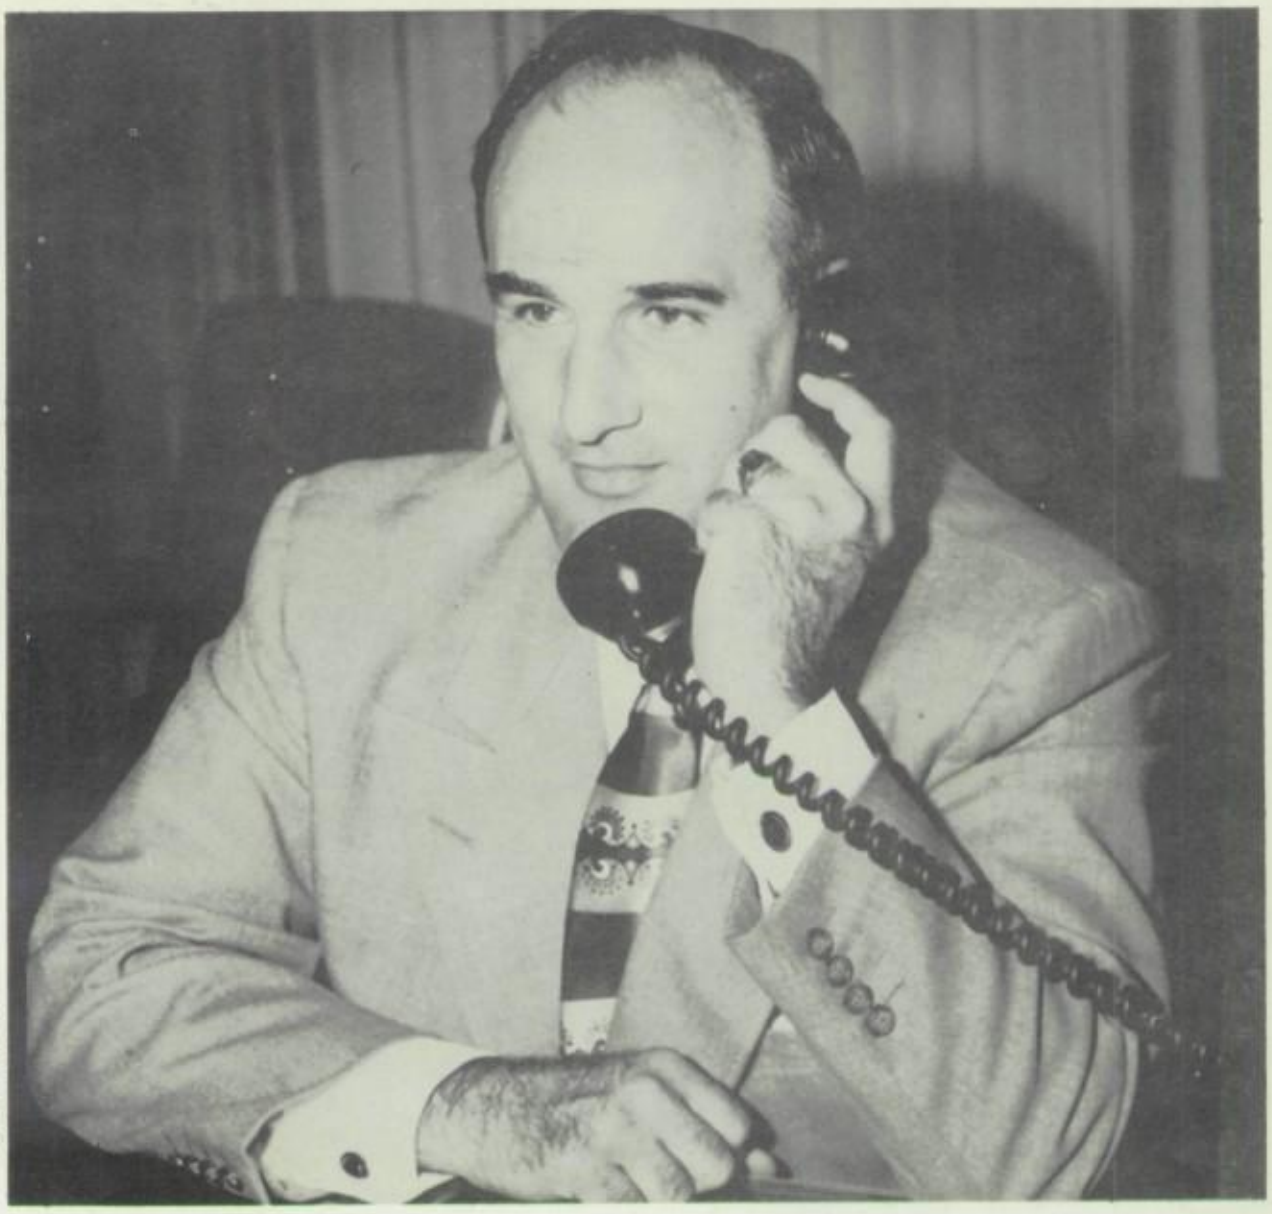
BOARD OF EDUCATION

School Board members spend much of their precious time as directors of the Phoenix Union High Schools and Phoenix College, and it is through their combined wisdom and efforts that this district supports one of the most impressive school systems in the nation. They are truly great benefactors in the promotion of a well-educated, modern and progressive youth.



Newly appointed this year as superintendent of the Phoenix Union High Schools and Phoenix College, Dr. Harold L. Gear is experiencing the many tasks and obligations of his important, new capacity.

PRINCIPAL DONALD F. STONE

The job of directing a bustling, ever-growing high school is a complicated one, beset by many problems. For the past five years, Principal Donald F. Stone has handled this job with the utmost efficiency and concern. He has tirelessly smoothed out difficulties, assumed responsibilities beyond the call of duty, and contributed in all ways he could to the creation of a modern, progressive West High.

Mr. Stone's ambition for West is more student participation in school government. He pursues this goal constantly, as he has faith in the ability of the students to run their school conscientiously and well.

Mr. Stone is sincerely interested in the individual student and is always willing and happy to help with a problem, be it large or small. His friendly, informal personality and deep understanding of people have made him immensely popular with the student body.

When not engaged in guiding the activities of West, Mr. Stone carries on many of his own. Where he finds the time is a wonder to all, but he is an active pilot, a regular member of the Kiwanis Club, and executive secretary of the Arizona Inter-Scholastic Association.

SECRETARIES TO THE PRINCIPAL

Serving as assistant secretary to the principal is Mrs. Bobbie Posteher. Operation of the switchboard occupies most of her time, and she also makes announcements on the public address system.

Bringing the departments of West High toward greater harmonious efforts, Miss Elizabeth Titsworth proved to be both stimulating and competent in her new capacity, entailing such duties as co-ordinator of all-school programs, curriculum improvements, departmental budgeting and inventories, and supervising a new-teacher orientation, teacher training, and student teacher program. She also served as the school's representative to the Parent Teacher's Association.

Miss Glenna Wilson, secretary to Principal Stone since 1949, has a great many responsibilities such as keeping appointments straight, taking care of correspondence, and is in charge of the public address system. She also has many other duties.

Miss Elizabeth Titsworth, Co-ordinator

REGISTRAR GLEN H. BRADFORD

REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

Calmly handling a normally difficult job made even more difficult by the rapid growth of West High's enrollment is Mr. Glen Bradford, registrar. His are the prodigious tasks of scheduling classes to the satisfaction of both teachers and students, keeping complete and correct records for each student, and doing all the necessary statistical work for the school. He manages to accomplish all this with unruffled nerves and even finds time, somewhere between figuring and chart-making, to help a student plan his schedule, counsel someone with a problem, or just pass along a favorite joke.

Mr. Bradford contributed toward our modern West by having key-punch and assorter machines, which greatly expedite record tabulation and office operation, installed in his office in 1951. West is the only high school in the nation to use this system.

ALWAYS WILLING

Efficient and friendly best describes Miss Shirley Peebles, registration secretary, as she helps with schedule arranging and adjusting.

The important job of credentials secretary is entrusted to Mrs. Rosamond Nelson, responsible mainly for recording grades and credit transcripts.

Mrs. Carole Shrier, capable key punch operator. can find every bit of information that has been compiled on every student. She is a great help to counselors as well as the Registrar's office.

Ever-busy attendance secretary, Mrs. Helen Lowmiller, says a friendly "Welcome back" with her cordial smile as she checks students' return slips every morning.

TO SERVE STUDENTS

The pleasant and proficient atmospher of the registrar's office is familiar to all teachers and students as it works behind the scenes to keep active West High running on an even keel.

Here, registration, scheduling and attendance duties are performed while complete profiles of the activities, honors, grades, etc., of students are conveniently and accurately recorded and filed.

Mrs. Olive Ray serves Principal Stone as AIA executive secretary in keeping important records, and she is also a clerk in the registrar's office.

EXTRA SPECIAL

DEAN ELEANOR FULLINGTON

Pert, smiling Dean of Girls Eleanor Fullington is well-known to all West students. She lends her numerous talents to such varied activities as Girls' League sponsor, supervisor of all campus club activities, and regulator of the school calendar.

In spite of her busy schedule, however, Miss Fullington is never too busy to help a girl with a problem.

An experienced teacher and counselor, Miss Fullington has been counseling at West for all five of its school years. Never old-fashioned in her ideas, she is continually striving to make ours 'A New West."

Mrs. Ruth Faulkner, a new personality on the West High campus, was kept very busy this year. As secretary to the deans, she not only handled all of the administration's printed matter, she also supervised the lost and found department, a full-time job in itself.

Mrs. Ruth Faulkner, secretary to the deans.

Dean Vaughn takes a little time out of his busy schedule to sell two tickets for the Dads' Club Father and Daughter Banquet.

The tables were turned this year when members of the Dads' Club of West Phoenix High School honored their daughters at the Father and Daughter banquet held November 9 in the cafeteria. It has been traditional for them to have a Father-Son banquet. Dean Vaughn, secretary of the club, made arrangements for the sale of the dinner tickets at $1.50 per person. Both Dean Fullington and Dean Vaughn direct many extra-curricular activities at West.

Dean William C. Vaughn

Dean of Boys William C. Vaughn is one of the most popular figures on the West High campus.

He is responsible for the student handbook, which every Thunderbird finds invaluable. In addition, Dean Vaughn is supervisor of the Boys' League and one of the guiding forces behind the Dads' Club.

Mr. Vaughn has been at West as Dean of Boys since its opening and without him, West High wouldn't seem complete.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS

Allan Starr interviewed Governor Howard Pyle and Mr. George Miller, president of the P.T.A., at the initial dedication ceremonies for the new Auditorium. The Governor spoke at the first event in the new building.

The Parent-Teachers Association is one of the most important school organizations. Through the P.T.A., the parents are kept informed about all phases of school life. Parents are able to express their ideas concerning subjects related to the school at P.T.A. meetings. Thunderbirds are justly proud of their P.T.A., one of the best in the state.

A student was interviewed before a meeting of the P.T.A. to show the workings of the counseling system at West. This was only one of a number of such informative programs.

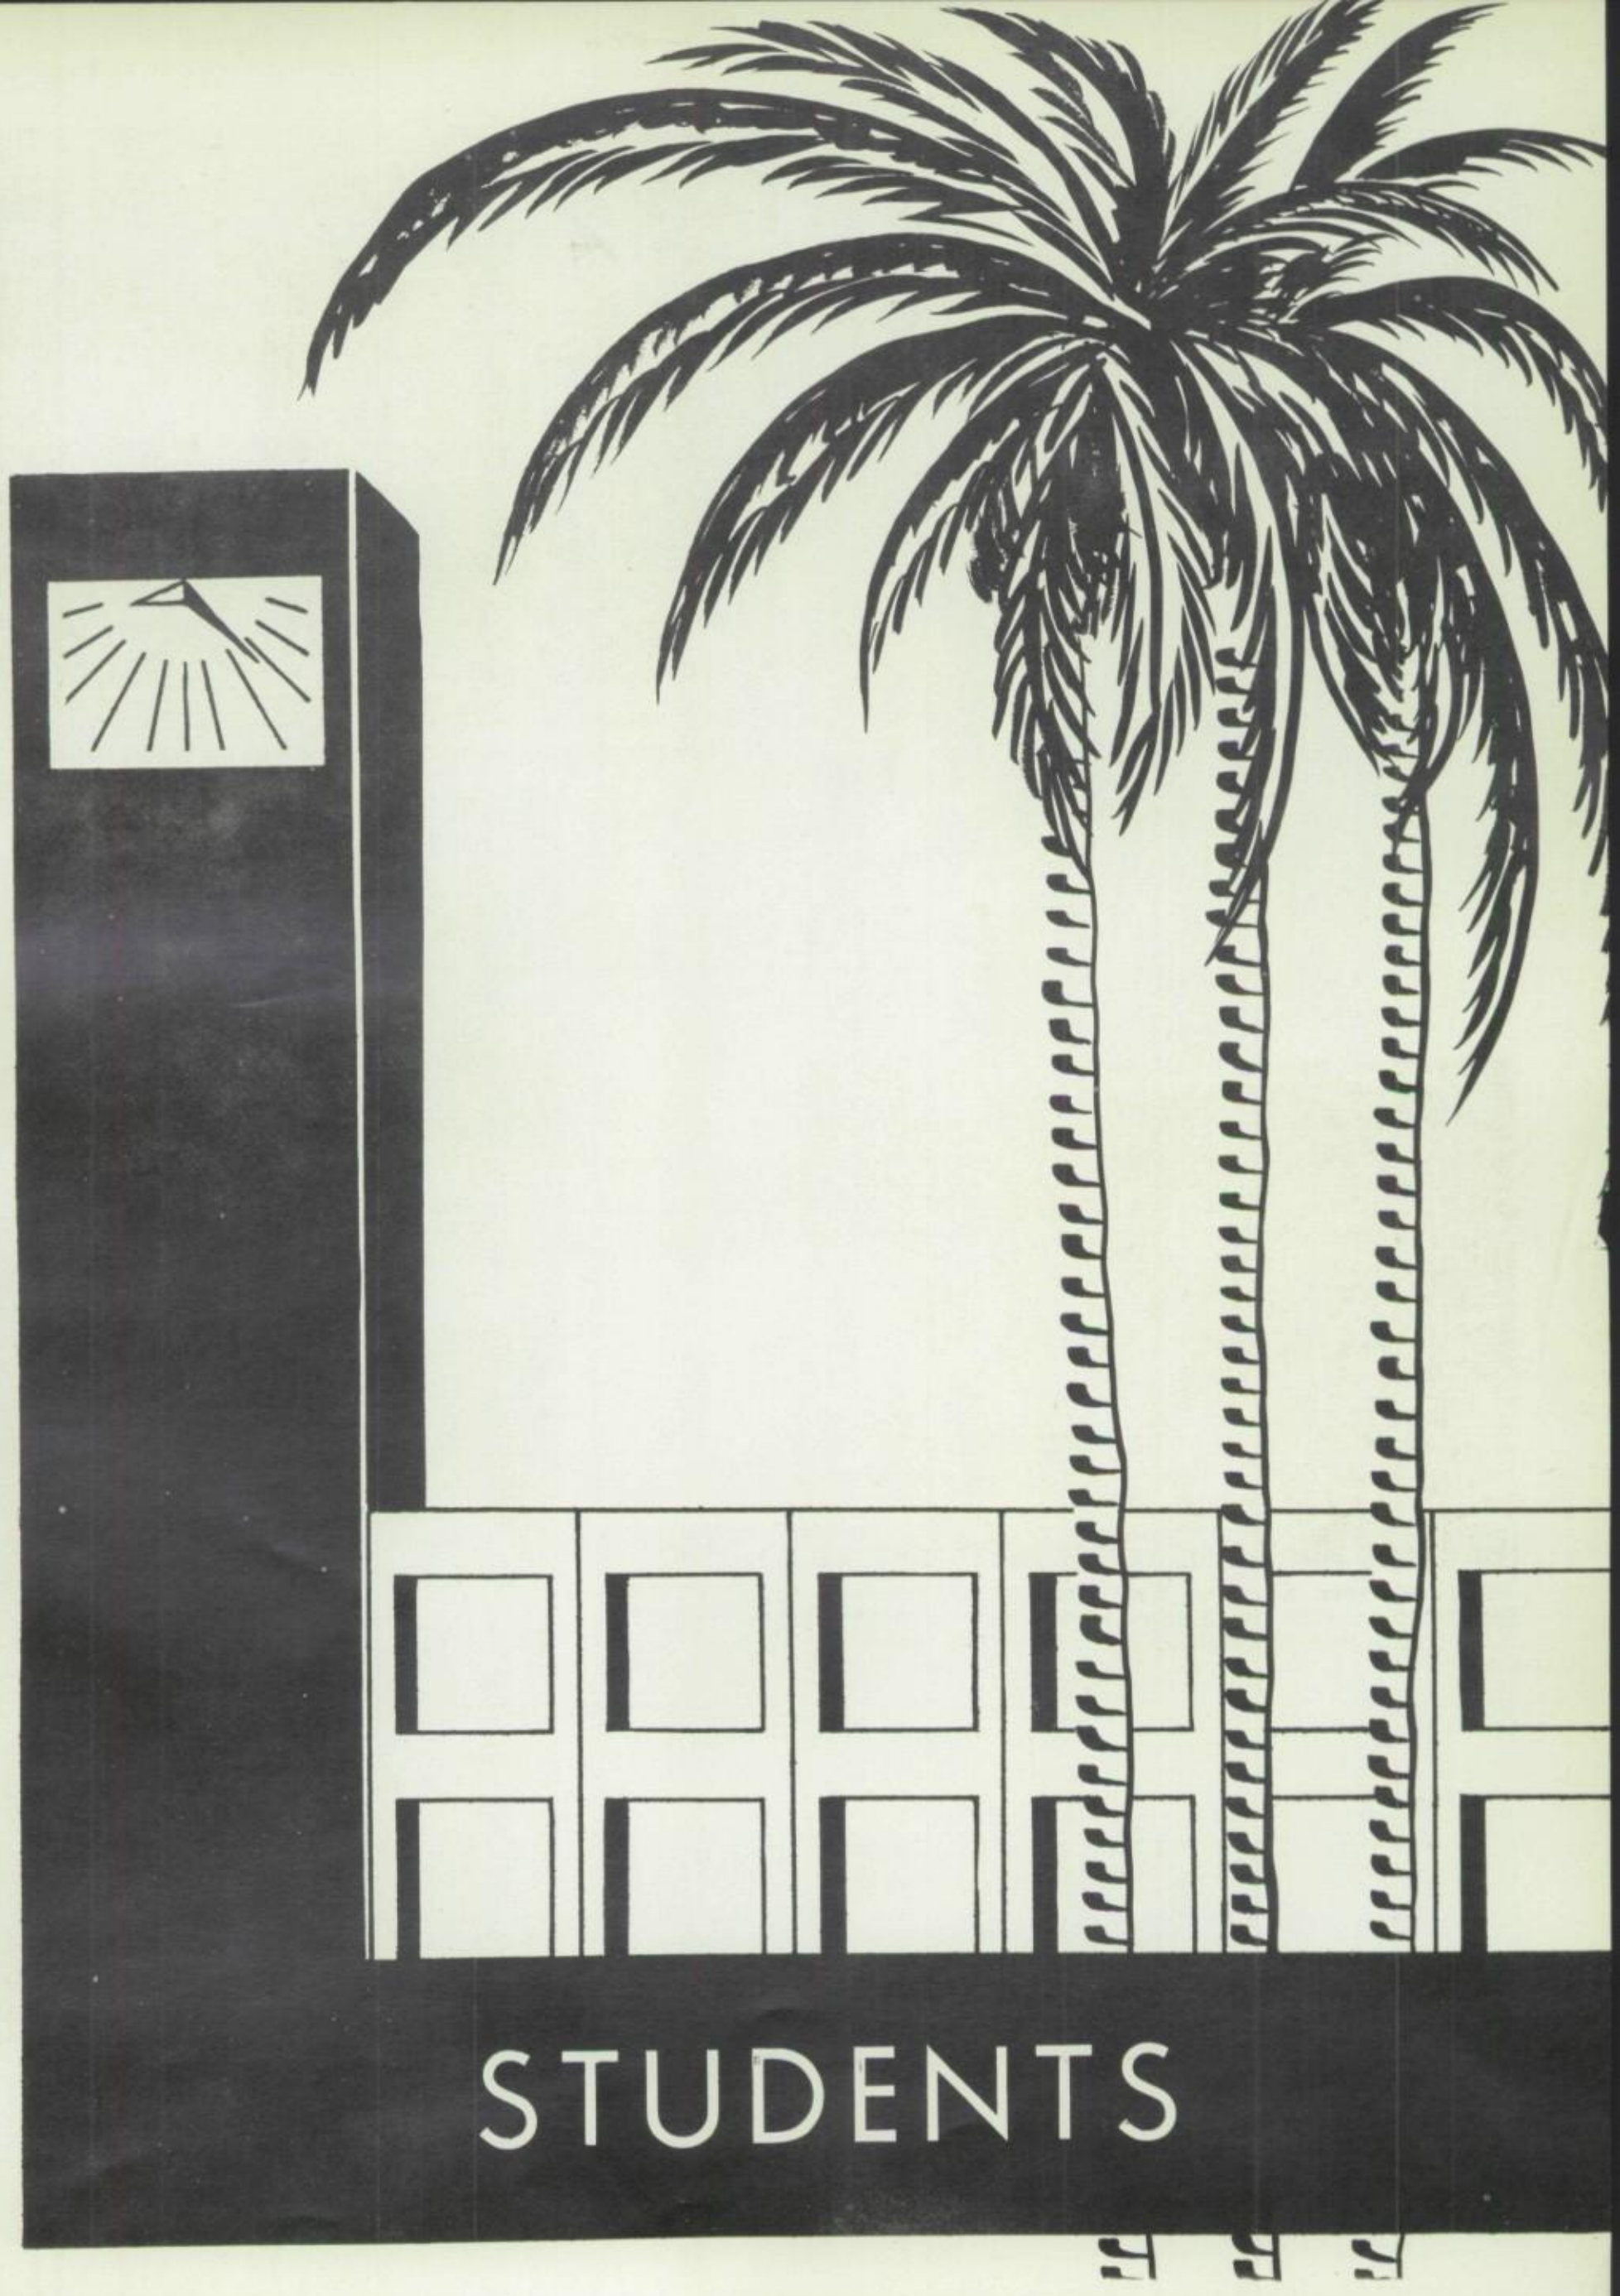
Teachers and parents enjoyed refreshments served in the cafeteria after P.T.A. meetings. Cake and coffee tasted good after programs concerning West High and education in general.

Mr. Thorpe demonstrates the school's radio equipment to open house visitors. With this radio, it is possible to speak to cities from Fairbanks, Alaska to Tokyo, Japan.

OPEN HOUSE

Principal Stone discusses West's counseling system with interested parents. Open house crowds showed great interest in this important department of the school.

Mr. Stitt explains his workings of the biology department to the open house crowds visiting his laboratory.



STUDENTS

The school was given a holiday air by the gaily decorated Christmas tree in the main lobby.

Color Day winners Ronald Morris, Ruth Smith, Frankie Smith, and Harold Waters received prizes for the best maroon and white costumes on campus.

Hostesses did some of their schoolwork while on duty in the halls. These girls gave their time to serving students on the campus.

AROUND CAMPUS

The Lettermen's Club satisfied the Thunderbirds' appetite for sweets when they conducted their lunch hour cake sale.

THE OLD WEST

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

HARVEY CHARNOFSKY
President

MARY LEE MOORE
Vice-President

This year's student body officers worked hard to give the school the fair, representative government which West High has become noted for. Under their guidance, the Asscciated Student Body of WPHS continually improved and prospered. All five of the "big wheels" carried out their many complicated duties with careful judgment and wisdom.

"Charno" did an admirable job of representing the school at outside events. He also conducted assemblies in a manner that would have been a credit to any experienced administrator. Mary Lee presided at meetings of the Student Council, displaying executive and legislative skill. Earl and Virginia handled the student body's correspondence and records neatly and efficiently. Judy, in her position as treasurer, budgeted the student body funds wisely and frugally.

The five officers of 1953-54 can look back on their past administration with pride and satisfaction in all that they have accomplished.

MEN BEHIND THE SCENES

The student committees are very important links in the chain of student government. Members of these administrative bodies plan and officiate affairs that involve the students directly. Members of the Finance Committee budget our funds. Social Committee plans the popular and successful dances. All campus projects such as the March of Dimes and Adopt-A-Family drives are controlled by the Activity Committee. Members of the Assembly Committee stage the entertaining assemblies. The principal duty of the Election Committee is to officiate in school elections. Members of these five student body committees are really the essential "men behind the scenes."

Always active is the Activity Committee. Row 1: Bettie Morris, Linda Lind, Lillian Estes. Row 2: Ronnie Robertson and Jim Gipson.

STUDENT COMMITTEES

Looking over an assembly routine are Ben Legler, Judy Phillips, Susan Stallcup, Diane Chestnut, Ronnie Newman, Rhoda Gale Klein and Mr. George Woods of the Assembly Committee.

OF, FOR, AND BY THE STUDENTS

Justice, understanding and encouragement are the keys that the Guidance Board uses to open the doors of good citizenship and a successful student government.

The board is composed of students elected by the student body, two senior representatives and two junior representatives and the student body president, and a faculty sponsor appointed by the principal. They meet one period each day to review, advise, discuss, and judge the cases brought against those violating the rules of the merit system. It is their duty to determine the number of demerits to be given in accordance with the nature of the offense, to encourage co-operation and to exemplify true democratic principles as they are being taught.

The fairness and integrity of members of the Guidance Board has always held the admiration of the faculty and their fellow classmates.

Indispensable to the efficiency of the Guidance Board are its busy secretaries, Diane Ellis and Diana Thomas, who write passes, take summons, type and file for future reference.

A government—of the students, by the students, and for the students—is what the student council symbolizes in its many functions. Comprising the student body executive officers, a representative from each homeroom, all class presidents, members of the guidance board and the standing committees, the council is able to represent the problems and desires of the entire student body and to encourage leadership and interest in good government.

The league is directed by a cabinet of officers and committee chairmen, and is co-ordinated by four class councils, and sponsored by the popular dean of girls, Miss Eleanor Fullington, and faculty advisors.

Outstanding cabinet officers are: Paula Adams, president; Linda Mahaffey, vice-president; Lorena Larriva, secretary; and Dottie Allison, treasurer. The class council presidents are Lynn Gardner, senior; Lilly Yee, junior; Sharon Farris, sophomore; and Joan Swartz, freshman.

Senior class council sponsor is Miss Ruth Miller. Miss Ruby Rieder sponsors the junior council, and Miss Eugenia Zeitlin and Miss Margaret Doyle the sophomore and freshman councils, respectively.

All of their united endeavors integrate into one continuously functioning body to promote a wholesome spirit of unity among the girls.

Some activities highlighting their agenda were a boy-girl panel discussion program, an all-girl dinner, "Femme Food Frolic," a style show, and the annual, memorable Emerald Evening of the year "Garden In The Rain." Regular, informal meetings are conducted monthly.

Mary Low Hudlow and Meredith Fawcett demonstrated their terpsichorean ability at the Girls' League "Puff 'N' Pant" with an exhibition Charleston.

GIRLS, GIRLS, GIRLS!

Same scene, twelve hours later. Couples going to the Girls' League formal, "Garden in the Rain," were greeted by that familiar sight at any dance, the reception line.

BOYS' LEAGUE, MEN OF ACTION

TOM PAVEY
Vice-President

BUDDY FIKE
President

JACK ADAMS
Secretary-Treasurer

Dum - de - dum - dum. Among the outstanding events at West this year, was the Boys' League's "Dragnet" sports dance. Also on the agenda were the Father and Son Banquet and "Ebbtide," one of the main formal dances of the year.

Boys' League functions through councils of which there are four, comprised by one member chosen from each homeroom. Then there is the executive council, which is composed of two members from each class and the Boys' League officers. Chosen by the West High boys were the officers, Buddy Fike, President; Tom Pavey, Vice-President, and Jack Brown, Secretary-Treasurer. Don Cook served as President for the first two terms.

This group had quite a busy agenda. Their greatest accomplishment was to write a constitution for West High's Boys' League. They were also responsible for founding the "Boys' Alliance Inter-City Council Organization," which consists of the presidents and vice-presidents of all the boys' leagues in the Phoenix Union High Schools. The aim of this organization is to help solve problems which arise in the various schools.

Always there to help is the Boys' League Executive Cabinet, composed of: Row 1: Gregory, Brown, Fike, Pavey. Row 2: Hoffman, Kramer, Gipson, Ekman, Tillotson.

BOYS' LEAGUE COUNCILS, A REPRESENTATIVE FORM OF GOVERNMENT

Representing Senior homerooms to the Boys' League were: Row 1: Givens, Morrow, Lassiter. Row 2: De Busk, Adams, Griffith.

Sophomores were: Row 1: Schmidt, Lineberry, Kort, Cohen. Row 2: Hoffman, Gregory, Johnson, Senseney, Dulaney.

Tom Pavey, Boys' League secretary, was on the reception line that greeted the couples who came to the League-sponsored formal, "Ebbtide."

Jerry Sanders and Sue Kassel were chosen as the best couple on the floor during the Prize Waltz.

ROLLS OUT TO SEA

Pedro Gonzales Gonzales, TV and movie comedian, provided intermission entertainment at "Ebbtide." His hilarious act was one of the high spots of the evening.

JANET PATTERSON
Vice-President

TO THE WIND

To the wind we go,
My joyful friends,
To the careless moving wind,
To heartlessly be tossed aside,
To be quickly marked and pinned,
To be leaders, followers, the great,
The spokesmen of our land,
To invent, discover and create,
To strive, to fail, to stand.
And the going will be rough and hard,
But I see within our eyes,
A fiery youth too great to quell,
To strong and far too wise.
So farewell my friends, my eager friends,
And may all our dreams be spinned
Across each straight and separate course,
Upon a TAMER WIND.

NANCY HALL

BETTY FIELD

A GREAT TEAM

Bob Hightower, Senior class president, set the pace for co-operation and many achievements with his fine leadership. Along with the presidency, Bob lent himself to ROTC activities and scribbled many an interesting word for the Sun Dial as Editor-in-Chief second semester.

A four-year term has finally ended for Janet Patterson, who served as vice-president of her class since the Senior class members were only baby Thunderbirds. Her enthusiasm, capability and interest charmed the ballot boxes and kept her always in demand as a loyal supporter and friend to the class of "54." Janet was also given the Daughters of the American Revolution award for her outstanding citizenship.

Secretary of the Senior class is Nancy Hall, and while she keeps an accurate record for them, she is never too busy for extra-club activities and to make top grades as well. This pert miss was also a candidate for Salad Bowl Princess.

Betty Field is the little girl with the big job of taking care of the finances for the Seniors, and aside from being a busy treasurer, she is a skillful tennis letter-gal.

Two wonderful coaches, Miss Elizabeth Hegner, who is a new mentor to the Seniors this year, and Mr. Arnold Bereit, a wise and popular friend through all four years, made a great team together as Senior class sponsors.

Sugar and Spice plus everything nice was the setting of the Tennettes' annual semi-formal dance. Barbara Wusich, president, and her escort, Terry Dennison, present two surprised Juniors with lolly-pops for holding the winning ticket.

The Seniors came through the last quarter of their high school careers with flying colors. Sponsoring Contemporary Accents, selling magazines to finance their Ditch day, the banquet, and to buy a lasting gift for their graduation ceremony and prom, the class of '54 can look back and be proud of their whole four years at West

THE JUNIOR JUBILEE

We hate to see the seniors go
But can't help smiling when we know
That now the limelight turns on we
Who fill their shoes. What glee
To think the year is named for us,
The honors, privileges and fuss
To greet our humble little souls,
Not mentioning the many goals
That soon will fall before our feet.
Responsibilities to meet,
The leadership that calls our name,
Yes, all this senioristic fame
Will form our last rememberance
With joys and dreams and grand events.
And so, when seniors weep and sigh
We all rejoice and wave good-bye.

Class president for the second time, popular Mike Armer has shown that he hasn't lost any of the leadership and ability he displayed as a Freshman. He has led the Juniors through a very successful year.

Vivacious Lily Yee, with an abundance of personality and executive ability, has been chosen to serve three outstanding years as Vice-President of her class. This charming little gal has helped to put the Junior class in the spotlight.

Although she is the only Junior officer who is holding office for the first time, Gail England has handled the position of class secretary like an old-timer. She has kept the Juniors' records neatly and meticulously.

Always ready with a smile is friendly Jerry Sanders, Treasurer for the Junior class. Jerry was responsible for the financial success of the class and his careful planning kept the money rolling in.

ONE MORE YEAR TO GO

Mr. Verne Jones, popular American History teacher, was one of the two class sponsors who were responsible for the smooth coordination displayed by the Class of '55.

The Junior class has completed a highly prosperous year. Third-year Thunderbirds sponsored several successful social events, among which were the class sports dance and the annual Junior-Senior Prom. They also staged a very entertaining class talent assembly.

Members of the class feel sure that next year, when they are "old-timers" on the campus, will be an even better and more satisfying year.

Miss Louise Breckerbaumer was the other half of the sponsoring team who guided the Juniors to their peak success.

Making plans for this year's Junior-Senior Prom are Jerry Sanders, treasurer; Mike Armer, president; Sue Phillips, Prom art director; and Gail England, class secretary. Their work and planning helped make the annual dance one of the highlights of the year.

UPPER CLASSMEN TO BE

For the second consecutive year, hard working Jack Geiger has served as president of his class. He also found time to be an outstanding football and basketball player.

Energetic Sharon Farris filled the post of vice-president. Full of enthusiasm, she worked zealously to help lead her class through a year of success.

Kazuko "Cookie" Sagawa, Sophomore class secretary for the past two years, records class history accurately and responsibly. She is a faithful supporter of her class in any activity but is also interested in archery and tennis.

Holding the money-bag is treasurer Ronald Rymer. Skillful at keeping books and persuasive at collecting dues, Ronald proved himself a fine asset to his class.

1954 found the Sophomore class carrying on many interesting activities. They sponsored a peppy sports dance for the entire student body following the Phoenix Union basketball game January 15. An "April Fool" assembly was the order of the day for April 1. At the close of their successful school year, the Sophomores, looking eagerly forward to becoming upper-classmen, began to formulate plans for a still better '55.

HALF-TIME

Two fourths down and two to go,
(Thought we'd never make it, though).
Now, we're ready for the pace,
To fill the upper classmen's place.
Quite sophisticated, we
Will strive on through the study sea,
Just as those who came before,
Hoping, making plans galore.
And we'll watch them, and we'll wait,
Knowing ours will be as great,
That the final half will bring
Adventures new and challenging.

SOPHOMORE SPONSORS

Mrs. Clara Walker has ably and cheerfully helped to guide the class of '56 for two years now. She taught them school traditions and policies, aided in solving difficulties, and won their genuine admiration.

Mr. Bernard Magnusson, Sophomore class sponsor, has counseled this class for two consecutive years. Through helping them to run their class smoothly and to co-ordinate their activities well, he has done more than his share toward molding them into fine Thunderbirds.

1954 found the Sophomore class carrying on many interesting activities. They sponsored a peppy sports dance for the entire student body following the Phoenix Union football game on January 15. An "April Fool" assembly was the order of the day for April 1. At the close of their successful school year, the Sophomores, looking eagerly forward to becoming upper-classmen, began to formulate plans for a still better '55.

Six cute farmerettes made the audience at the Sophomore Assembly sit up and take notice. These talented and beautiful girls, with their sprightly dance, were one of the most popular acts in the assembly, which was one of the best all year.

Ann Sherer's assembly portrayal of a scarecrow that came to life really brought down the house. Her talented tap routine set everyone's toes a-tapping.

CLASS OF '57

Eager to make their mark in West High's ever-growing book of memories, 637 Freshmen entered the Thunderbird family this fall.

They began their activities with the Bee Bop Hop, a sports dance after the first basketball game of the season, and continued to show remarkable efficiency and productiveness throughout the year. Now they are ready and waiting to greet a new flock of Thunderbirds next year with all the understanding and wisdom that comes with a year of experience and success.

Already experienced in the arts of being "head man" from his grammar school presidency, Larry Betts, Freshman class president, displayed his fine capability as he led his classmates through a year of hard work and fun.

Popular Frosh veep, Elizabeth Kesler, divided her vim and vitality between her interests in sports activity and her class and devoted her time to both of them.

Vivacious Ann Kelly Freshman class and class council secretary, not only kept her records accurately, but also helped in spiriting the class of '57 with enthusiastic endeavors.

Personality plus, describes Catherine Teng, Freshman class treasurer. She works earnestly to "keep the ball rolling" as far as financial matters are concerned and makes top grades as well.

REQUEST

The dreamers, the strangers,
We walked through the halls,
You laughed at our blunders,
Made jests of our falls,
And now that we've learned
All the "whys" and the "wheres,"
The cheers and the jive
And such other affairs,
We'll walk as the sturdy,
A class of the best,
Being rogues to new freshman,
As you may have guessed.
Just one thing we ask you
Who witnessed our days
As the freshman, the awkward,
Your humerous preys,
When our time to triumph
Is finally here,
Don't mention our faux pas
When freshman are near!

Mr. Ralph E. Frantz's excellent counseling helped the young Thunderbirds to recognize their responsibilities and gain confidence.

Miss Wilma Sain was instrumental in encouraging and guiding the Freshmen through their successful first year.

DREAM OF FUTURE YEARS

A candidate for a Freshman Class office delivers his campaign speech, while other candidates hopefully await their turns.

Eager to make their mark in West High's ever-growing book of memories, 637 Freshmen entered the Thunderbird ranks this fall. They began the year with the Bee Bop Hop, a dance held after the first basketball game of the season, and continued to show remarkable efficiency and productiveness throughout the year. Now they are ready and waiting to greet a new flock of Thunderbirds with all the understanding wisdom that comes with a year of experience and success.

Aproned members of Trick-a-Teens, Freshman Y-Club, laughingly display kitchen utensils which they carried about with them on initiation day.

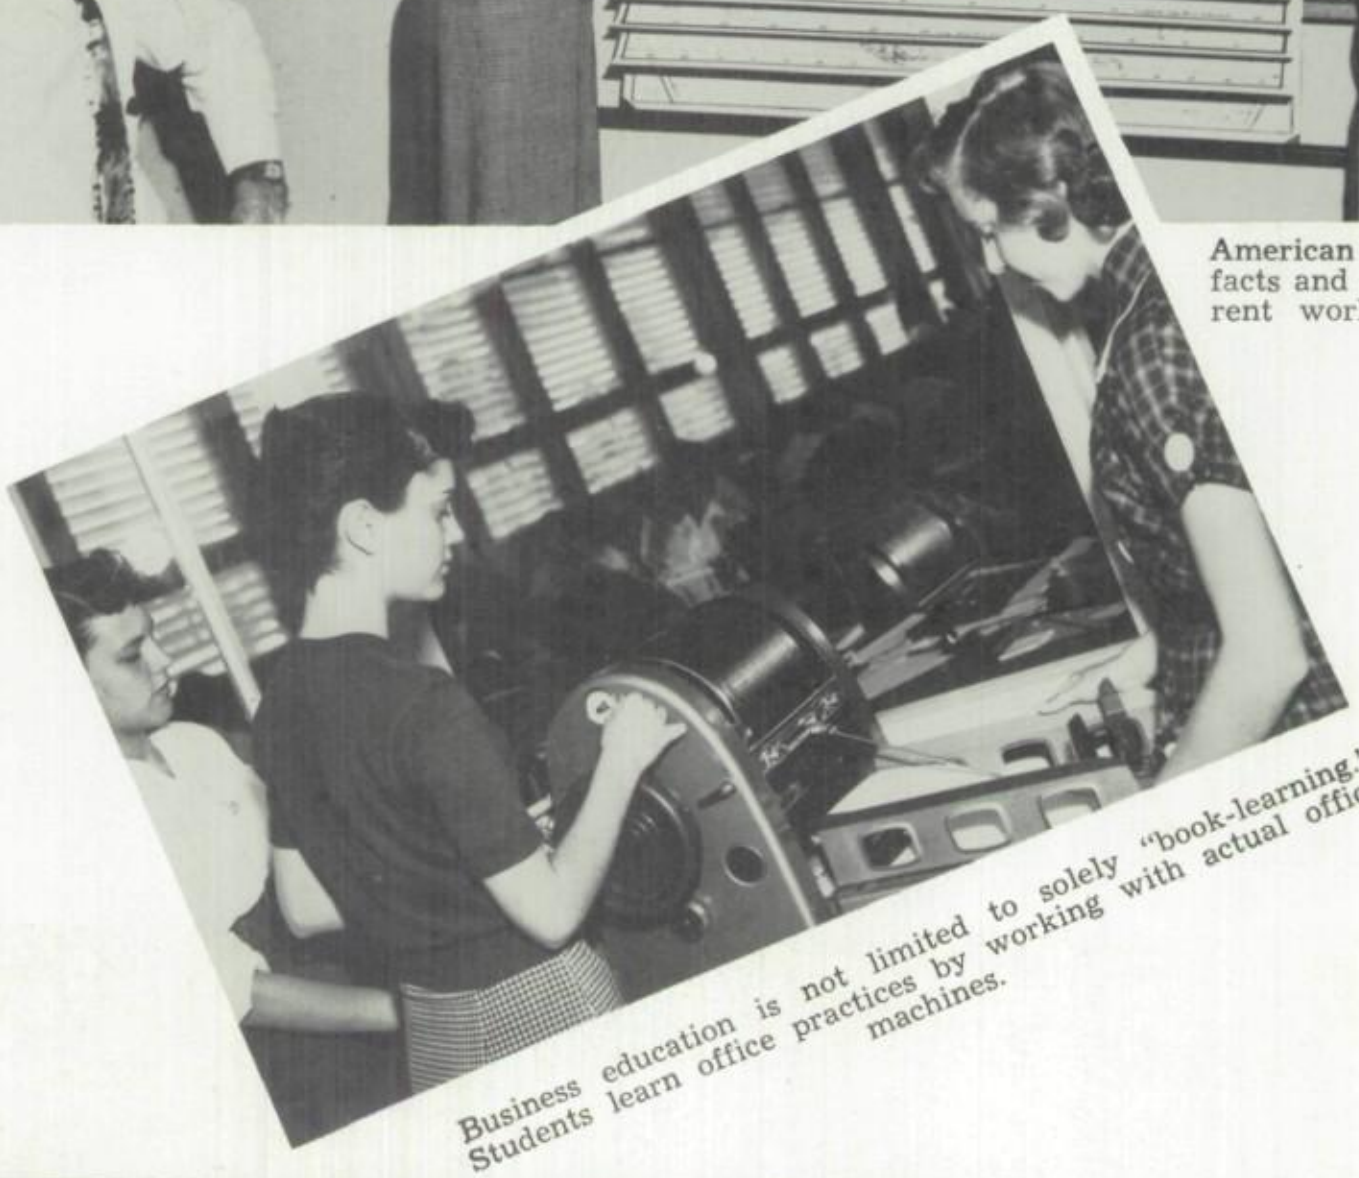
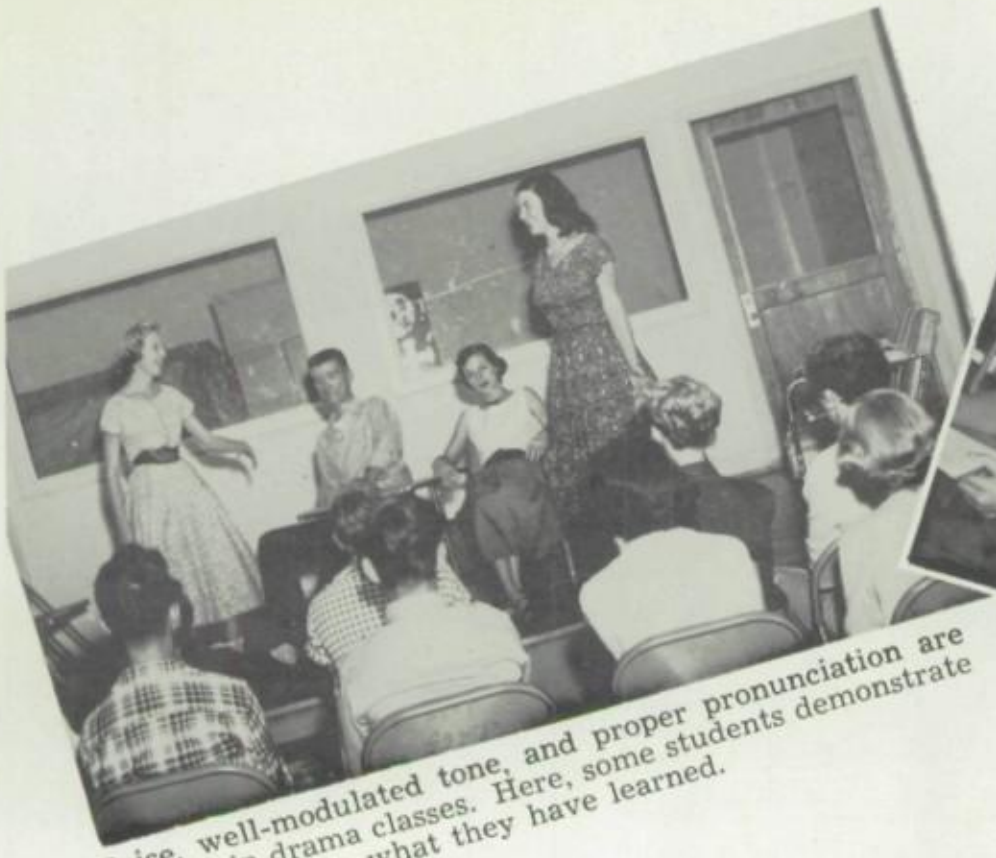
American history students learn historical facts and are also kept up to date on current world events and politics in Mr. Jones' class.

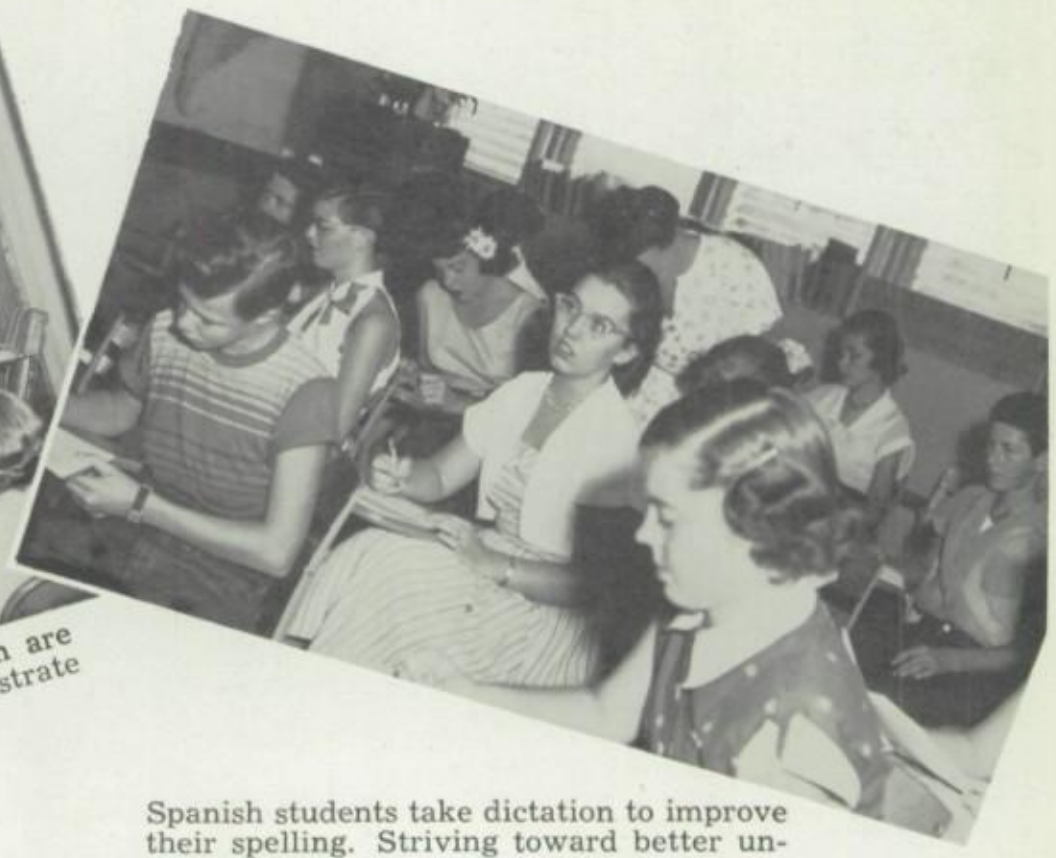


Business education is not limited to solely "book-learning." Students learn office practices by working with actual office machines.

Mr. Fuller displays the work of his students. The art courses teach appreciation and develop originality and technique.



Poise, well-modulated tone, and proper pronunciation are stressed in drama classes. Here, some students demonstrate what they have learned.



Spanish students take dictation to improve their spelling. Striving toward better understanding of Spanish-speaking peoples, they work diligently to learn the language.

CLASSROOM ACTIVITIES

Child care students have a grand time frolicking with the children, at the same time gaining valuable knowledge in guiding them.

Behind West High publications, journalism students have quite a large responsibility. This class is intently studying a local newspaper, learning journalism technique.

Children's toys, books, and records are regular equipment in child care classes. Here, a student amuses her group with a story.

Mr. Sherman gives one of his art students a few helpful pointers. This department designs most of West's posters, floats, and stage sets.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT!

He can only crawl now, but becomes high point man on the tennis team his Senior year. You're right! It's none other than Dennis Lyon.

This little cupid doll looks a little teased, but grows up to be quite a dish. Yep, it's our vivacious cheerleader, Lorena Larriva.

Well, who is this blonde beauty? Here's a little hint. She gave up this rocky-horse for a cheerleader's uniform. Si, Helen Tolleson is her name.

Here sits a man of the world and still is today! He's a part-time cowboy and plays on the football team. You guessed it; he's Jim Hill.

She's "in her Easter bonnet with all the frills upon it" and is still as pretty as a song. We mean, of course, Norma Jameson.

It must have been a funny joke, at least that's what this future president of Teenettes seems to think. Won't keep you guessing; her name is Barbara Wusich.

Gone to the dogs! Looking very contended on her pedestal is our present president of Girls' League, Paula Adams.

SENIORS WERE BABIES

"Anybody want a bite of ice cream?", offers Marilu Cione, a very talented and popular Senior.

No doubt thinking about problems of the year-book is Editor-in-Chief, Jo Phillips.

"Hmmm, good booze!", says Vice-president of the Student Body, Mary Lee Moore.

Whether it's wagons or convertibles, this guy is happy. Know who it is? It's our whiz-of-a-basketball player, George Nelson.

"And away we go!" Still one for goofing off is Allan Starr, chief photographer for the Sun Dial.

Grinning from ear to ear are these still good-natured brothers. The picture isn't very deceiving. We all recognize Sonny and Frank Nelson.

ACTIVITIES

YOURS TRULY, THE WESTERNER STAFF

Jo Phillips
Editor-in-Chief

Sue Phillips
Art Editor

When the layouts are in order, pictures are scheduled and taken, and the final product is presented to the printer, everyone on the Westerner staff heaves a sigh of relief as the deadline is met.

1954 found Jo Phillips, Editor-in-Chief, co-ordinating the book assisted by Toni Bond, Managing Editor; Rodney Ann Crowe, Sections Editor; and Elaine Turken, Associate Editor. Taking care of the business end of the annual was Shirley Hedges, Business Manager.

Constructing layouts and doing the numerous other art jobs for the book was Sue Phillips, Art Editor, and her assistants Bob Henderson and Jane Lucas.

Posing, snapping, and printing pictures was the job handled by Terry Dennison, Photography Editor, and the many other members of the Photography Department.

Copy Editor Bonni Greatman and her associates Lynn Zendle and Stuart Schaeffer wrote copy for most of the book, and Dick Vankirk wrote sports copy.

Ads were sold by Journalism and publications students under the guidance of Miss Gladys Gollong. Mr. John Sherman directed the art work while Mr. Morton Boss was in charge of photography. Miss Elizabeth Titsworth was copy advisor and Mr. Roswell Willard was faculty co-ordinator.

Compiling material for an annual is a long and tedious job, and the credit belongs not to just one person but to every student and faculty member on the staff.

Bob Henderson and Jane Lucas, Associate Art Editors, plan a page for the Westerner.

Elaine Turken, Associate Editor, takes time out from her typing to smile for the photographer.

SMILE, PLEASE, THIS IS FOR THE WESTERNER

WESTERNER STAFF

Writing copy is a difficult job handled by Stuart Schaeffer, Bonnie Greatman, and Lyn Zendle, Copy Writers.

Always willing to help are Izzie Rountree, Sandy Chiate, Bee Buchanan, Elaine Gordoezky, and Ann Driggs, Assistants to the Editors.

Indispensable to the success of the Westerner are the faculty sponsors. Seated are Miss Elizabeth Titsworth, in charge of copy, and Miss Gladys Gollong, Business Advisor. Standing are Mr. John Sherman, Supervisor of Art; Mr. Roswell Willard, co-ordinator, and Mr. Morton Boss, Photography Advisor.

LITTLE SPOKES IN A BIG WHEEL

After their tour, journalism and publication students went out to eat Spanish food and to give a surprise shower for Mr. Ross Willard's expected baby.

Janie Lucas, vivacious first semester editor, did an outstanding job as "chief" of the Sun Dial.

Always ready with a joke or a camera was the paper's head photographer, Allan Starr.

THE SUN DIAL

Thunderbirds kept up to date on campus affairs by reading the Sun Dial, West's newspaper. Published bi-weekly, it contained such varied items as news stories, sports, jokes, and special features.

Janie Lucas and Bob Hightower, first and second semester Editors-in-Chief, respectively, were quite busy giving assignments to the staff, planning layouts, making sure that the editorials were written, and generally seeing that everything ran smoothly. Managing Editor Rodney Anne Crowe was their capable assistant. Donna Pace, Business Manager, handled the Sun Dial's business details.

News Editor Toni Bond saw that all news stories made the deadline, and Copy Editor Barbara Foster checked them for accuracy and composed the headlines. Roy Schubert, Feature Writer, wrote up special features and activities. Carol and Connie Pilling, Feature Editors, accounted for and checked feature stories.

Dick Van Kirk, Sports Editor, was in charge of sports data. Staff Photographer was Allan Starr, who seemed an inseparable companion of the camera. Errands and miscellaneous necessary jobs were performed by Jack Redmond, Expediter.

Glancing over their stories in the Sun Dial are some of the hustling reporters. Seated, Bud Hightower; standing, Phil Griffith, Eddie Lassiter, Blanche Hedges and Janie Parker.

No, this isn't a double exposure, it is the Pilling twins, Carol and Connie, Feature Editors.

Sports editor for both the Sun Dial and Westerner, Dick Van Kirk was constantly busy writing copy.

Editor-in-Chief Bob Hightower set the deadlines for the Sun Dial second semester.

ROLL THE PRESS!

Rodney Ann Crowe, Managing Editor; Barbara Foster, Copy Editor; and Toni Bond, News Editor are jotting down the facts for an important story.

Soliciting Ads is an important job capably handled by Donna Pace, Business Manager and Jack Redmond, Expediter.

Head music director Mr. Beryl Folks, with his genial nature, is a popular friend among the students as well as an inspiration to musical expression.

Mr. Richard Philabaum, assistant music director, combines patience, understanding, and competency into the finest technique for harmonious musical activity.

An impressive sight on the field is Bruce Wharff, drum major, as he proudly struts and twirls his baton at the front of the marching band.

As an organization of music-loving and ambitious students under competent direction, the West Phoenix High School Band contributes much enthusiasm and spirit to assemblies, game half-times, and parades and annually presents a successful spring concert.

A trumpet trio of Harold Krichman, Dave Campbell and Al Abrams adds an additional feature of talent and zest to the West High Band.

Majorettes Heather Feriera, Myrna Hayden and Patty Steinbronn, dressed in white silk uniforms with maroon-lined skirts, white hats topped with maroon plumes and leather boots, give their special glints of charm and vivacity to musical pagentry.

The size and completeness of the orchestra shows to full advantage when ranged across the wide stage of the auditorium.

West's orchestra is another outstanding musical group on the campus. They can play anything from Prokofiev to pops, and play it well. The orchestra contains the cream of the school's musical talent. Their excellent playing has won them wide recognition, and their concerts attract large crowds of music lovers. The Thunderbird orchestra, directed by Mr. Beryl Folks is one of the most popular entertainment organizations at West High.

The violin section practices intently in preparation for the annual Orchestra Concert.

Members of the orchestra form a semi-circle around Mr. Folks. Intent on improving their playing techniques, they concentrate on the music and their conductor.

West's own dance band, the Men of Note, swing into some jazz. This talented group of young musicians have played at many of our dances, never failing to win applause.

MUSIC

It takes lots of patience and lots of practice to make the Mixed Chorus the organized body that it is. Singing in assemblies, for the operetta and for different clubs and organizations, the chorus and Miss Graham were kept constantly busy. Forward, march! This year the ROTC marched into many honors and activities. They participated in a Washington's Birthday Rifle Match, Federal Inspection, and Military Night. For the second consecutive year they won the Armistice Day Parade, bringing glory to West.

Parades were executed in honor of parents and alumni, and in February a Military Ball was given. The ROTC also took part in the splendor of the Masque of the Yellow Moon.

West High is proud of the fine training given the boys of the ROTC—and hopes they'll never have to use it.

Headed by Lt. Colonel Jim Martin, the entire battalion stands in formation.

Martha Featherstone and Rhoda Gale Klein, student directors, pose with Mrs. Lois Halladay, director, on the set of "Gay Havana."

The faculty directors of the production gather around the piano for a little vocal merriment.

Ay, que lindas senoritas! Oh, what beautiful girls! And what dancing, music, and romance there were "In Gay Havana"! This frothy bit of Cuban intrigue had the honor of two "firsts". It was the first operetta produced at West High, and it was the first major production given in the new auditorium.

Complete with a snappy Cuban band, some of the best singers on campus, and the pom-pom girls, the operetta packed the house for two consecutive nights. Mrs. Lois S. Halladay was the director and Rhoda Gale Klein the student director of the show that was indisputably February's outstanding event.

Arrayed in South-of-the-border garb, this Cuban band burst forth in continental rhythm.

Knocked out and kidnapped is Paul Burleson, a young groom who is spending his honeymoon in Cuba with his wife.

Jan Clemer, an American college student, and Connie Haggard, his lovely, mysterious sweetheart, sing a romantic duet.

Although not one of the leading characters, Senor Toro is certainly one of the most picturesque.

In accepting the new building into the Phoenix Union High School System, Dr. Harold Gear, Superintendent of Schools, assures Thunderbirds they have the finest auditorium in the state of Arizona.

Student Body President, Harvey Charnofsky, expresses his inspiring confidence of West's success and his deep gratitude for the new auditorium.

Valedictorian Barbara Goor gives her speech; at the same time, a farewell to West High.

Margaret Edwards, Valedictorian, presents her address, ending four years of intense study. This was West's first year to have two valedictorians.

THE CLASS OF '53

On May 29, 1953, West High's first four year graduating class received their diplomas. Robed in the traditional maroon and white, the students marched into the stadium to the music of the West Phoenix High School band.

The Reverend W. Clyde Beecher offered the invocation, and the mixed chorus presented several selections. Speeches were given by Salutatorians Tom Watt and Gordon Holt and Valedictorians Barbara Goor and Margaret Edwards. Principal D. F. Stone presented the class, and a member of the Board of Education awarded the coveted sheepskins. Four years of study at West were over—four years of life.

High school now a part of the past, the graduates slowly leave the stadium.

A proud graduate shakes hands with a member of the Board of Education. Principal Donald F. Stone assists in the ceremony.

Harvard Hill (19) goes through two Glendale defenders after grabbing a Jim Shupe pass as Dick Van Epps and George Vaughn come up to lead the interference.

This year's edition of the Thunderbird football squad was a hard-fighting though inexperienced outfit. Starting the season with only nine returning lettermen, Coach Vern Braasch and his assistant, Cecil Crouch, molded a squad made up of 13 seniors and 11 underclassmen into a hard-hitting team that gave other class A teams trouble at times, even though most observers felt the Thunderbird football team was still a year away from realizing its full potential.

WEST 1, TUCSON 0

Coach Braasch's Thunderbirds traveled to Tucson the next weekend to meet the 1952 state champion Badgers in a defensive struggle that saw Tucson capitalize on fumbles and pass interceptions to take a 27-0 win. The decision was later reversed when West was awarded a 1-0 victory because of an ineligible Tucson player.

Milt Naylor, West safetyman, breezes by a Phoenix Tech defender with a Hornet punt.

Allen Brewer (10), Garth Bellamy (17), and Jim Hill (43), move in to stop Tech's Don Campbell after a short gain.

Jim May (25) drives for yardage in the Mesa game as Delbert Cox (47) and another unidentified Thunderbird get a ground-floor view of the proceedings.

WEST 19, PHOENIX TECH 7

Highlight of the season for West was this game, with a strong West defensive line, led by Bob Mitchell and Phil Glaze, throttling the Hornets' offensive thrusts, and May, Charnofsky, and Shupe, gaining well for West's spirited Birdmen.

Four Burly West linemen, Phil Glaze (49), Bob Mitchell (45), Jim Hill (43), and Dick Nickum, crash through to nail a Mesa ball carrier for a loss.

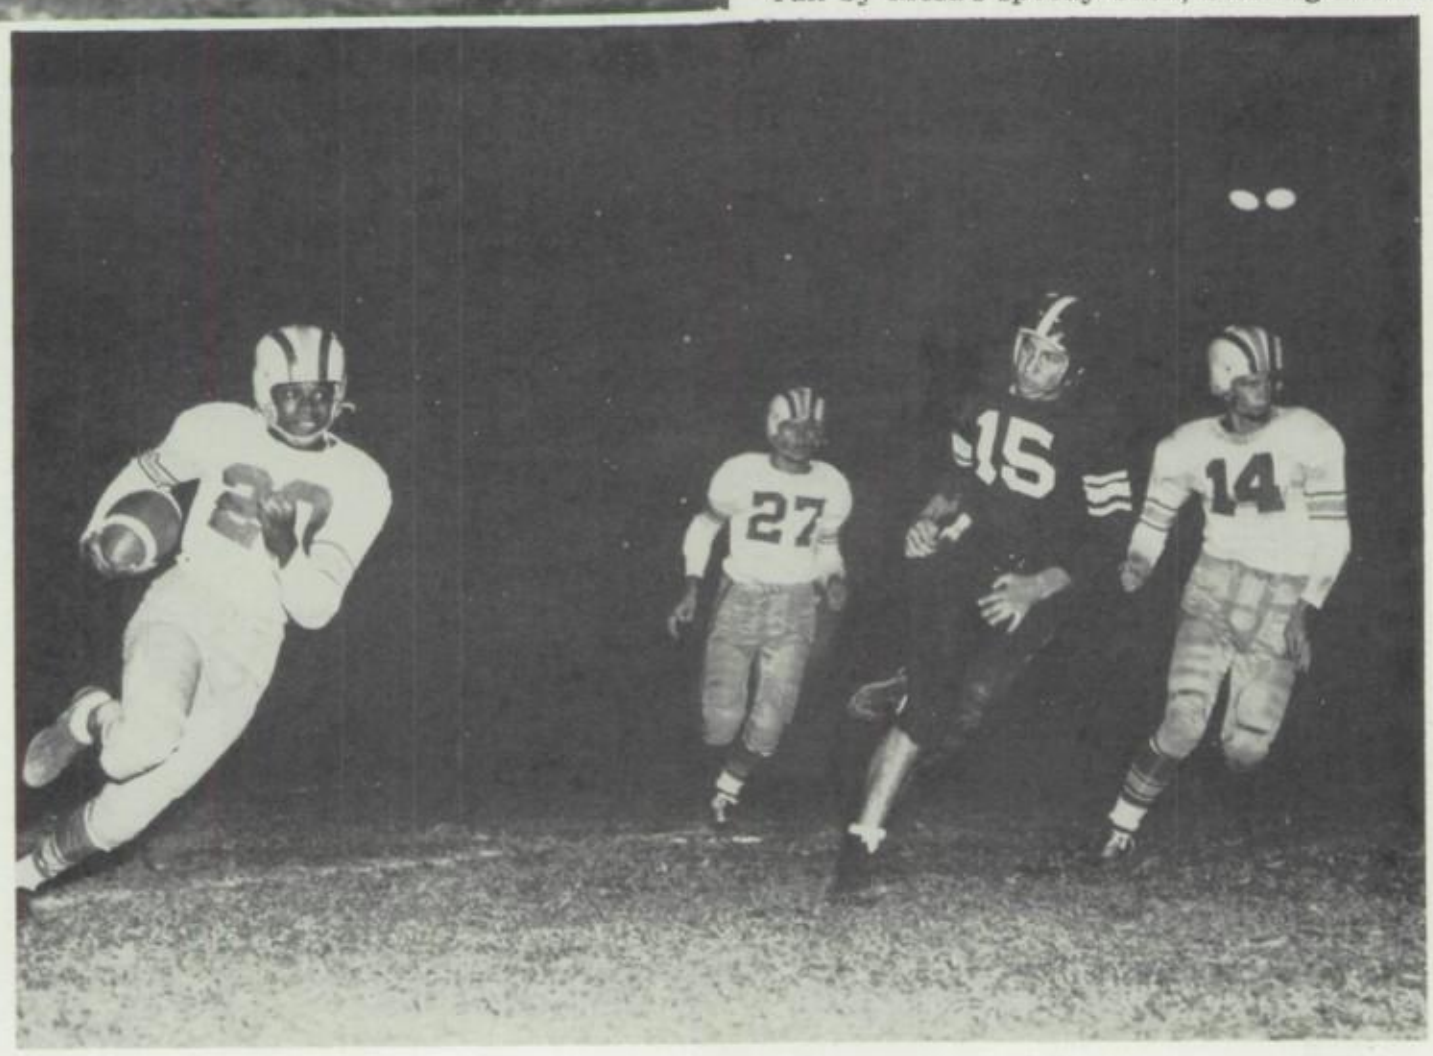
Bob Clemmer (38) and Dean Norris (14) a pair of promising sophomores, assist an unidentified Thunderbird in brining down a Glendale back.

Harvey Charnofsky (40), speedy halfback, crashes through the Mesa line as Ted Ryden (29), Jack Blake (27), and an unidentified Thunderbird come up to assist him with timely blocks.

Bill Crabtree (22), Mesa's all-state back, attempts to drive through the West line but gets nowhere as Dick Nickum (30), Gene Jones (23), and Jack Blake (27) move in to put the stop on him.

WEST 7, ST. MARY'S 0

An alert West defense kept St. Mary's vaunted Mickey Folz to Bill Volrath passing combo throttled throughout the game, and Jim Shupe gave West its second straight win with a fourth-quarter plunge. The Birds finished with a 3-5-1 record to nail down seventh place in the class A race. Phil Glaze, Senior guard, was given a second-team berth on the all-state squad.



Dick Byrd (15) crashes in to stop an attempted end run by Mesa's speedy back, Sterling Bonner.

ALL AROUND GOOD TEAM

February 25 was the date set for the beginning of the class A Tournament, with West, Tucson, and Mesa rated as favorites, but a fighting Phoenix Tech team upset the dope bucket as they dropped Tucson in the opening round and Mesa in the semifinals.

West met North in the first round of tourney play and handed the Hosses at 46-32 defeat, behind the point-making and rebounding ability of Richards and Mueller. Coach Ed Long's Phoenix Union Coyotes gave West a scare in the semifinals before bowing, 45-41.

Pandemonium reigns as West players, fans, and coaches alike joyously celebrate the Thunderbirds' 37-33 victory over Phoenix Tech in the tourney finals.

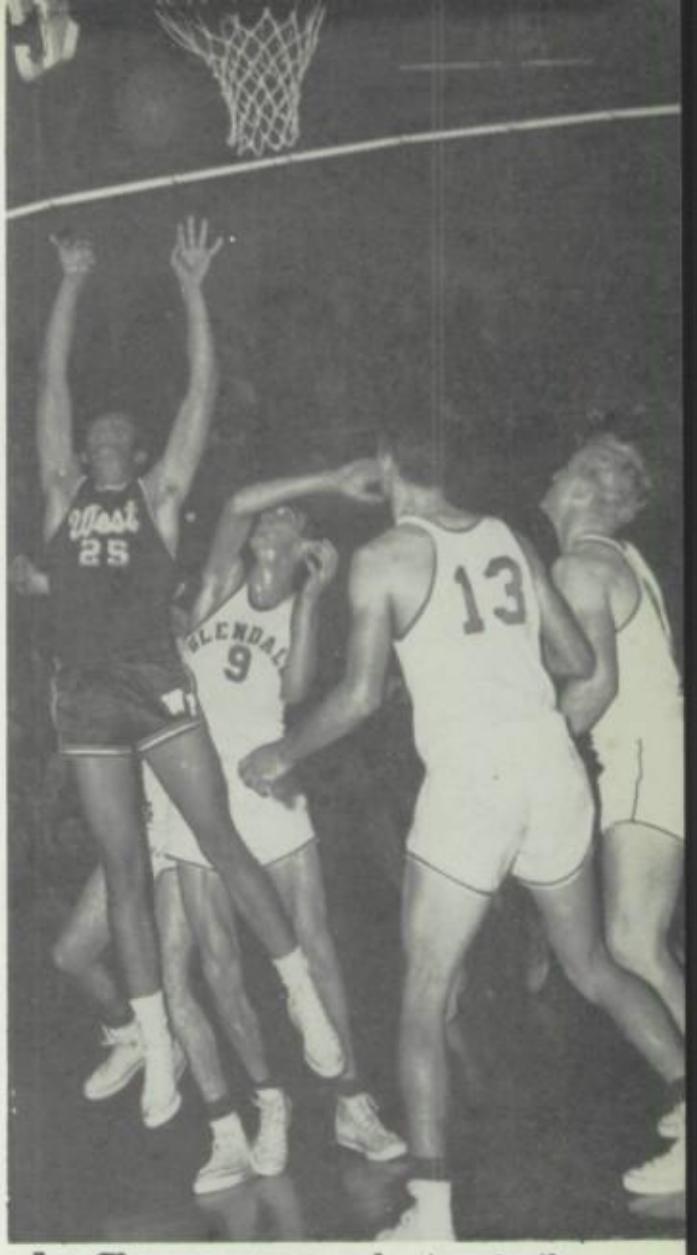
Neill Richards, Thunderbird center, goes up for a loose ball along with a pair of Yuma Criminals as Ronnie Robertson and the remainder of the Yuma team stand by.

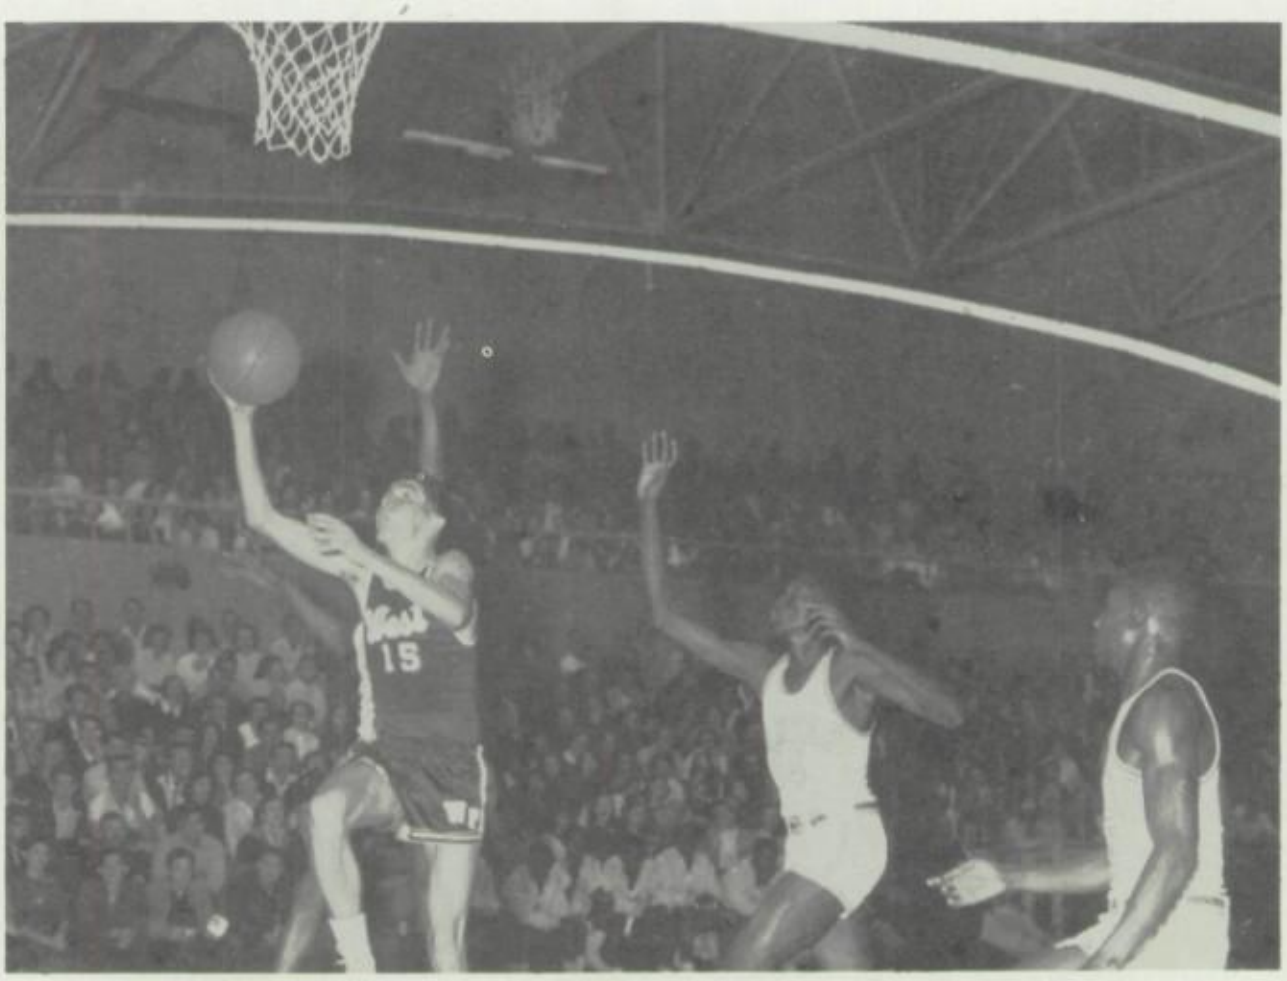


Jan Clemmer goes up for two in the Glendale walkover.

The defending champion Hornets started the final game as if they meant to keep the title another year, building up a 21-12 halftime lead, but in the second half the Thunderbirds' defenses started clicking, and Ronny Robertson, George Nelson, and Sonny Nelson broke up the usually smooth Tech passing game.

Bob Mueller put West ahead for the first time with three minutes left in the game as he sank a pair of free throws. West put on an effective stall in the final minutes to preserve their 37-33 margin.

Mueller and Richards were both named to the all-tournament first team, with Mueller being named captain and most valuable player.



Sonny Nelson, Thunderbird playmaker, drives in for a layin against Carver.

Ronnie Robertson, West's mighty mite, outstretches Tucson's Garth Wilson as he passes in to Bob Mueller, waiting near the basket.

Bob Mueller floats past an unidentified Tech Hornet as he drives under for a difficult shot.

With five lettermen, including starters Neill Richards and Bob Mueller, back from his second place club of 1952-53, Coach Link Richmond's varsity cagers rated as preseason favorites in the class A race along with Tucson and Mesa.

After several weeks of serious practice, Coach Richmond's forces opened their season December 4 against an unpolished Glendale crew. Paced by Neill Richards and Bob Mueller, the Thunderbirds coasted to an easy 57-28 decision.

West continued its winning ways in the Birds next four games, dropping Mesa, North, Yuma, and St. Mary's handily before a combination of a long bus ride, a holiday layoff, and a red-hot Tucson team gave West its first loss, 57-37.

Stung by the defeat, the Birds return to Phoenix the following night and handed Class B champions Carver their only loss of the season, 49-47, behind the fourth quarter point surge of reserve guard Tom Hudak.

The Thunderbirds went on from the Carver victory to pile up their longest winning streak of the season as they swept past Phoenix Union, Phoenix Tech, Amphitheater, Glendale, North, Mesa, St. Mary's, and Yuma before an inspired band of Hornets from Phoenix Tech cut the streak short at nine straight.

Playing without center Neill Richards, the Birds dropped a return match with Tucson the following night, 75-65.

West closed out its regular season play by taking easy wins over Amphitheater and Phoenix Union to post a 16-3 season record, good enough for first place in the city league race and a tie for second in the class A conference with Mesa.

Ken Barber and Dick Hudson of Glendale stand aghast as Jan Clemmer outjumps them to get off an easy shot.

Coach Ray Braham's Jr. varsity basketball squad posted a 12-6 season record in competition with other J. V. squads around the valley. Standouts for the Thunderchicks were Bob Clemmer, Jim Mason, and Jim Schmook.

Bernard Magnusson's freshman basketball posted a 6 to 8 loss record behind the steady playing of Dan Anstett and Jim Murray.

Winning six games and losing eight is the Freshman basketball team. Row 1: Brown, Goodman, Ekman, Mattson, McEown, Williamson. Row 2: Doerrer, Anstett, Nickum, Spears, Emerson, Seidel, Coach Magnusson.

Dean Vaughn sells two tickets to the first annual Father and Daughter Banquet.

A pretty sticky job, but the students at the Teenettes Taffy Pull seem to be having fun.

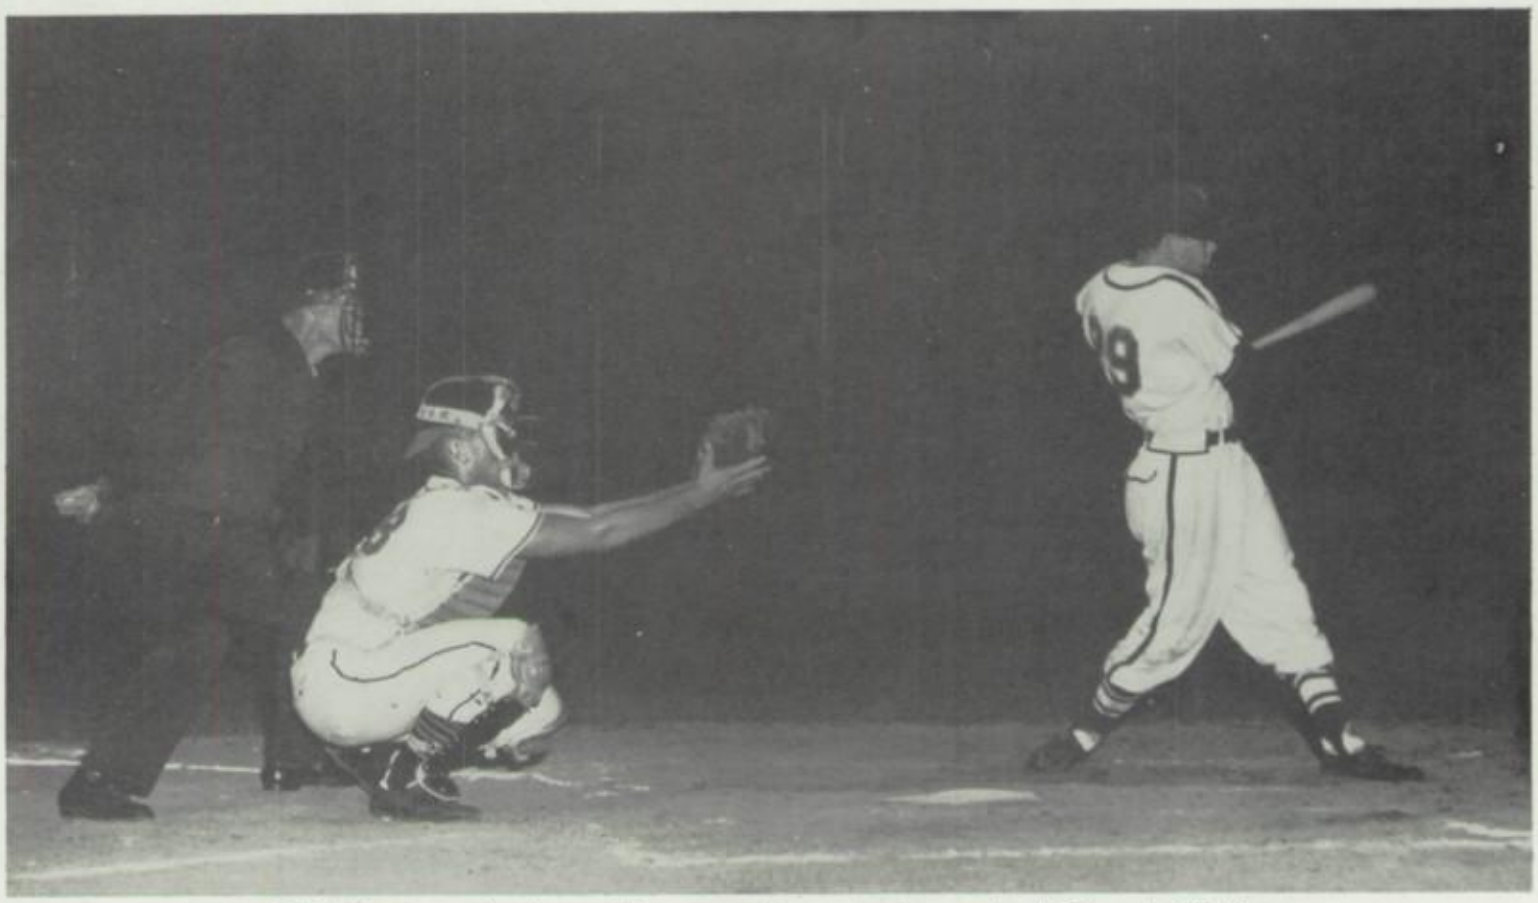
BASEBALL OUTLOOK IS BRIGHT



Dick Farrow, junior catcher, cracks a single against Phoenix Union.

Coach Cecil Crouch's varsity baseball team had 10 seniors on the 16 man squad, with three juniors and three sophomores completing the squad. Behind the strong hitting of Dick Farrow, Arry Pastis, and Henry Zanin, Coach Crouch's boys compiled a 10-10 record as the Westerner went to press.

Standouts in the pitching department were Seniors Bob Mueller, Rudy Whitmer, Alan Mulhauser, Jack Blake, and Don Baniewicz. Returnees for next year include Dick Farrow, Ronnie Newman, Tim Coyle, Alan Thron, Milt Naylor, and Dana Wells.

Dick Farrow slides in under the Phoenix Union catcher's tag.

Coach Jim Gump's 1954 track crew was caught short by graduation losses, leaving only five returning lettermen, but with only four Senior on his squad, Gump was rebuilding for next year, when the Thunderbird thinclads are expected to be one of the powers in the state.

Bill LaFave, Ray Raynor, and Bryan Johnson clear the first low hurdle against Landers and Piggee of Tucson.

DOING JUST FINE

Ray Raynor, Bill LaFave, Bryan Johnson, and Harvey Charnofsky line up for a practice start on the Thunderbird track.

Thom Donaldson and Harvey Charnofsky were leading point-getters for the Thunderbirds, while Roger Beck, sophomore miler showed promise for the next two years as one of the better distance runners in the state.

Other standouts were Jim Williams, sprints and broad jump, Delbert Cox, weights, Stan Troxel and Jan Clemmer, quarter-milers, Dick VanKirk, high jump and broad jump, and Bill LaFave, hurdles.

West's thinclads started slowly, winning only one of their first four dual meets, but improved throughout the season and had grabbed third place honors in the All-city meet by the time the Westerner had gone to press.

George Vaughn, Class A state champion pole vaulter, clears the bar easily in the Tucson meet.

Roger Beck, West's ace miler, crosses the finish line as he takes first easily against Mesa.

SO FAR, SO GOOD!

Coach Vern Braasch's freshmen track team was a well-balanced versatile crew, with a 2-1 record up to Westerner deadline time. Standout performers included Jack Williamson, hurdler and sprinter, David Emerson, high jumper, and J. R. Stephens, miler.

Shot-putter Delbert Cox strains as he gets off one of his 47-footers.

Stanley Troxel hits the 20 foot mark against Mesa in the broad jump.

GOLF

Coach Howard Beazley's defending class A championship golf team was made up mostly of underclassmen, with Stan Hobart, Larry Wolf, John Larkin, and Harmon Morrell as the only seniors on the ten man squad.

After compiling a good match record up to Westerner deadline time, Coach Beazley's boys looked forward to the state tournament where they hoped to retain their crown.

WRESTLING

Coach Vern Braasch's brand new wrestling team was a sturdy, well-conditioned one, with several outstanding grapplers on the squad. Losing only to powerful Indian School in dual matches, the Thunderbirds were rated as one of the teams to beat in the state tournament at Tucson.

Outstanding wrestlers on the squad were Chuck Hudspeth, 138 lbs., Bob Green, 133 lbs., Tom Meredith, 127 lbs., and Bob Mitchell, heavyweight.

Ted Meredith squirms out of an Indian School wrestler's grip.

Six weeks of dancing, offered in the PE curriculum, introduces the girls to the origins and forms of dancing and how they differ in many parts of the world.

A well-rounded schedule is what makes the general Physical Education course so popular with West High girls.

Throughout the year, they are offered preliminary instruction in many outstanding sports and exercise in coordination and team play.

A class in archery learns basic rules of position and aim with the "bull's eye" as their final goal.

Retrieving their arrows, girls get a friendly smile of approval from Miss Priscilla Prather who checks their progress each day.

PRINCESS JOAN: PERT, PRETTY, AND POISED

JOAN NUNAMAKER
Salad Bowl Princess

Lovely Joan Nunamaker was West High's 1954 Salad Bowl Princess. This charming miss was selected on a basis of 25% poise, 25% personality, and 50% beauty.

Representing West in the New Year's Day Parade, Joan competed against 32 other candidates from the state over.

Joan has had other honors bestowed upon her besides being West's Princess. She was named Miss Melon Queen during the summer and Miss Congeniality in the contest for the title of Miss Arizona.

In the New Year's Day Parade, Her Highness Joan, smiles prettily.

Gail England, Frances Bone, and Carolee Taylor were three of the dancers who "countrified" an assembly when they danced to "Goofus."

Thunderbirds were reminded of their own "Grammar School Daze" when Ben Legler, Frank Klink, Mary Burke, and Mike Armer donned short pants for a hilarious skit. It was a "first grade" assembly.

ASSEMBLY ANTICS

Ralph Rodgers wore a dress and a blonde wig to become a torch singer who made eyes at all the boys, and especially at Harvey Charnofsky.

The football team tried to find out what a game looked like on the other side of the pompons. Three of the cutest of the new pompon line were Bob Mitchell, Richard Nickum, and George Vaughn.

Lunch lines turned to conga lines when a group of girls pranced across the quad. They provided their own accompaniment at the top of their voices.

Ben Legler and Paula Adams brought culture in the form of dancing grace to one of the assemblies. They performed the dance that is so popular among the elite, the Charleston.

CUT-UPS ON CAMPUS

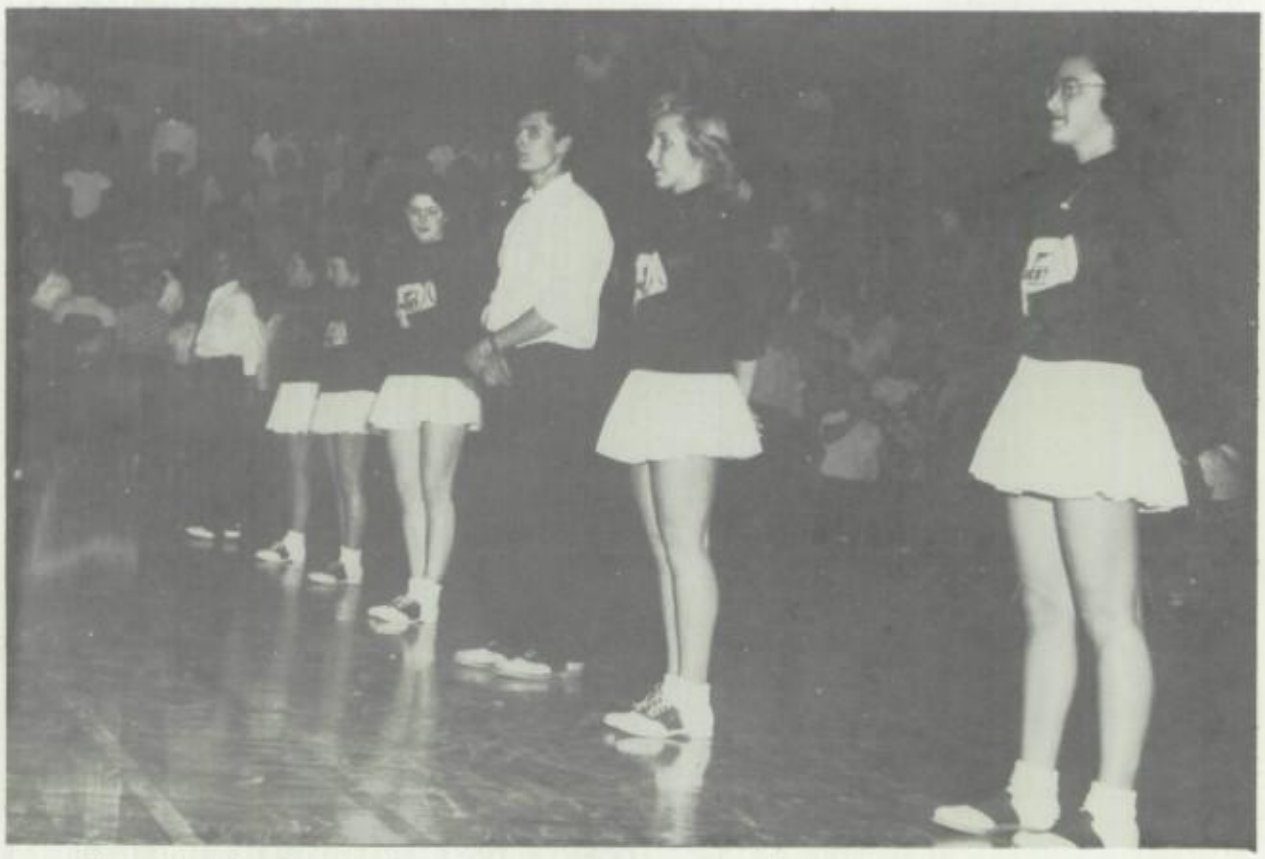
A lot of people made several trips to the refreshment table at Sugar 'N' Spice. And who wouldn't, with Gail Staymen, Mary Smith, Dee Davis, and Sandy McVay doing the serving.

The Boxing & Wrestling Assembly ended with a battle royal when nine freshmen were blindfolded and told to "go in slugging."

Li'l Abner, Daisy May, the Wolf Gal, and a host of Al Capp characters livened up a "Beat PU" pep assembly.

Miss Pris Prather gives some last-minute instructions to her Productions class before they perform at the State Fair.

Budding mechanics worked on automobiles of all types and ages in the Auto Shop. This was really a "learn by doing" course.



The cheerleaders quit turning cartwheels at the end ot an assembly to lead the student body in the singing of the Alma Mater.

HAIL ALMA MATER

Thunderbirds took their books and headed for home at the end of mass pep rally on the quad after school. Pep rallies of this type were highlighted by parades through the halls led by the band.

"Book-ateria" would be a fitting name for this classroom turned self-service bookstore just before school started.

The cafeteria became a scene of hustle and bustle last September when Thunderbirds registered and signed up with their teachers.

Mr. Beazley proved himself to be quite an athlete when he jumped rope at the faculty party.

Dean Vaughn demonstrated the latest device for getting students to class on time when he showed his skill on a Pogo stick at a pep assembly.

Members of the faculty really let down their hair at "Bury the Hatchet," the big faculty party. The usually sedate teachers made a big night of it with refreshments and hilarious party games.

Judy Phillips played secretary to Ben Legler's Coach Braasch in an assembly skit satirizing the problems of a football coach.

Although Verne Nesbitt's pantomiming to "C'est Si Bon" was in French, his clowning was funny in any language.

CLOWNING THINGS UP

Carla Caylor's graceful hula in the Senior Class Assembly made everyone in the audience sit up and take notice.

Shades of old Heidelberg! A real live old-time German band livened up proceedings at the Senior Assembly when they paraded up and down the aisles of the auditorium.

WATT'S AHEAD

Only time will tell what's ahead for each of you: maybe fame . . . or fortune . . . or, maybe both. In any case, the real measure of success is not fame or fortune; it's freedom. Freedom to think, freedom to speak, and freedom to act. Your biggest responsibility is the protection of those freedoms for yourself and for others. What's ahead depends on your efforts. Fame and fortune have little value without freedom, so we must all be alert to combat any force that attempts to take our freedom from us.

THE CLASS

OF 1954

EDITOR'S SIGN-OFF

It's all over, and I can't believe it. For eight long months we worked steadily toward our goal. We stayed after school, came to school on Saturdays and holidays, and sacrificed lunch hours with but one purpose in mind —to make this the best Westerner yet.

Your 1953-1954 Westerner Staff was "the greatest." Everyone in each department donated both time and talent to the book which makes this truly a project of the students.

Putting out a year-book isn't all work, however. We have had many good times this year, and I will remember my association with the Westerner and its staff as being one of the most priceless experiences of my life.

A special, special thanks is extended to these special people.

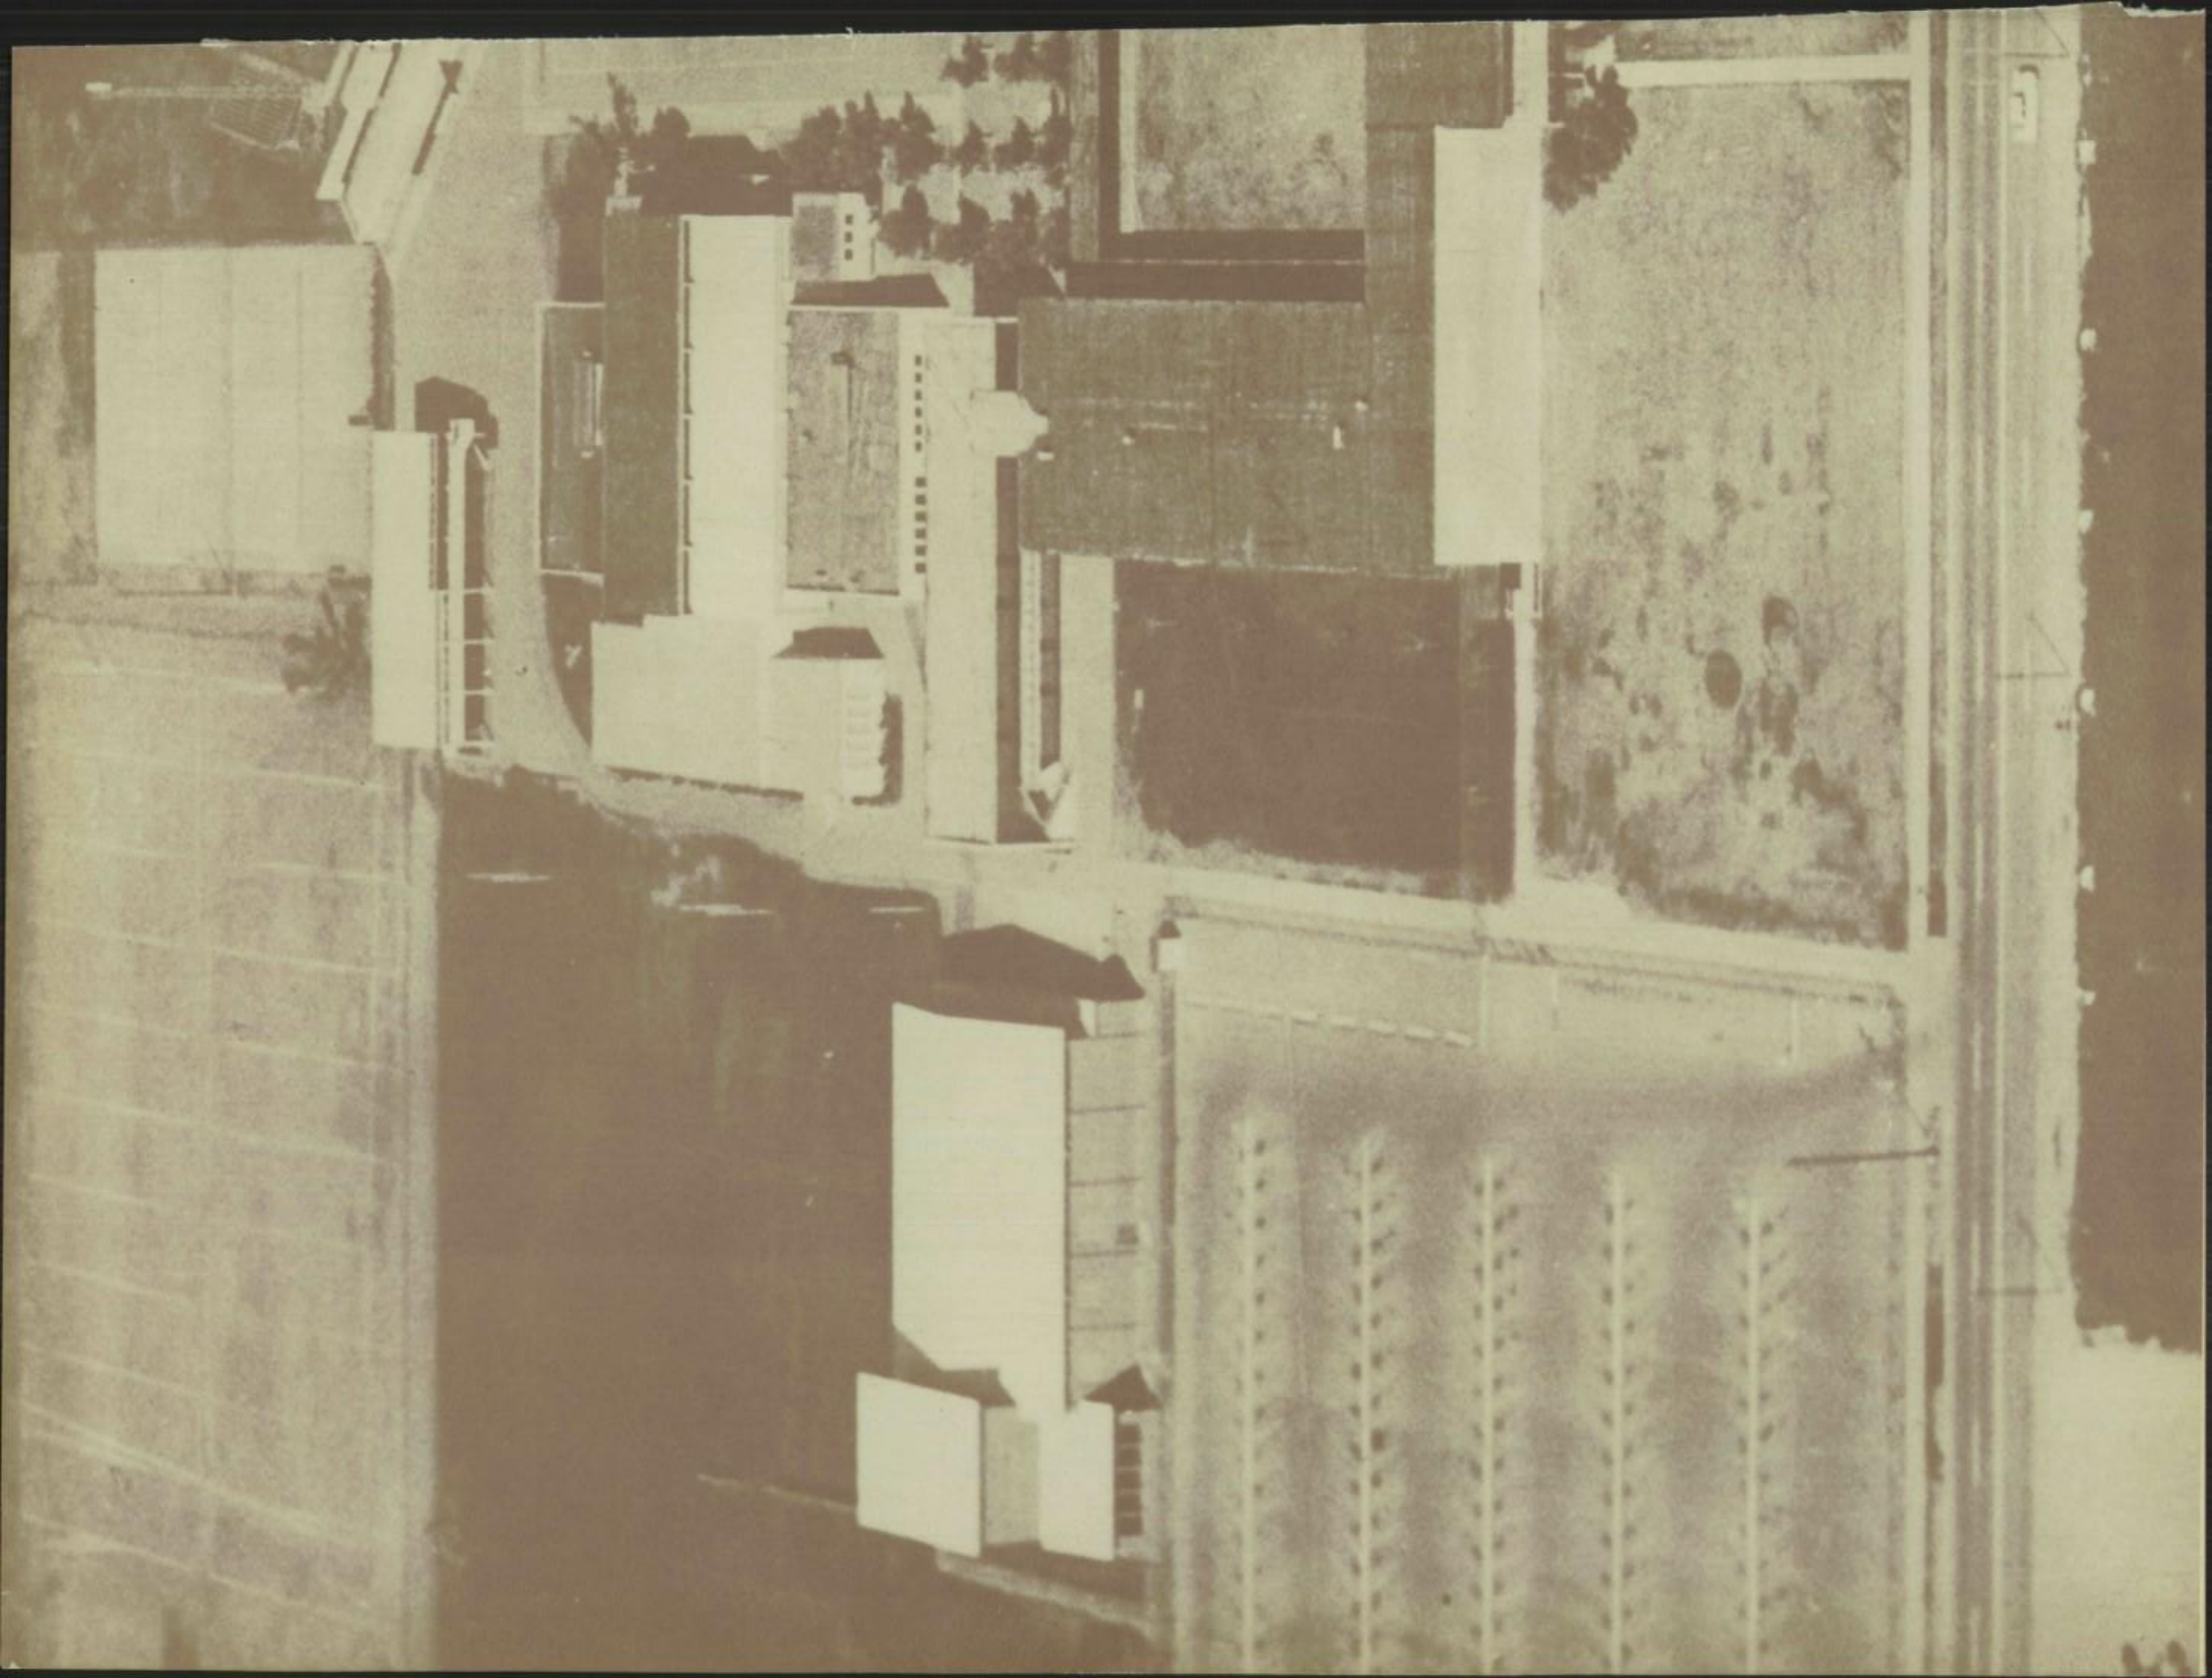
PHOTOGRAPHY DEPARTMENT: Mr. Morton Boss, Photography Advisor; Terry Dennison, Photography Editor; Steve Stapley, Eddie Lassiter, Charlie Shaffer, Dick Byrd, Fred Birch, Bill Kiviat, Allan Starr, Tom Fitzpatrick, Jim Sutherland, Ken Bonsack and Bob Spenser for carrying an even heavier load by taking both the Junior and Senior Class pictures.

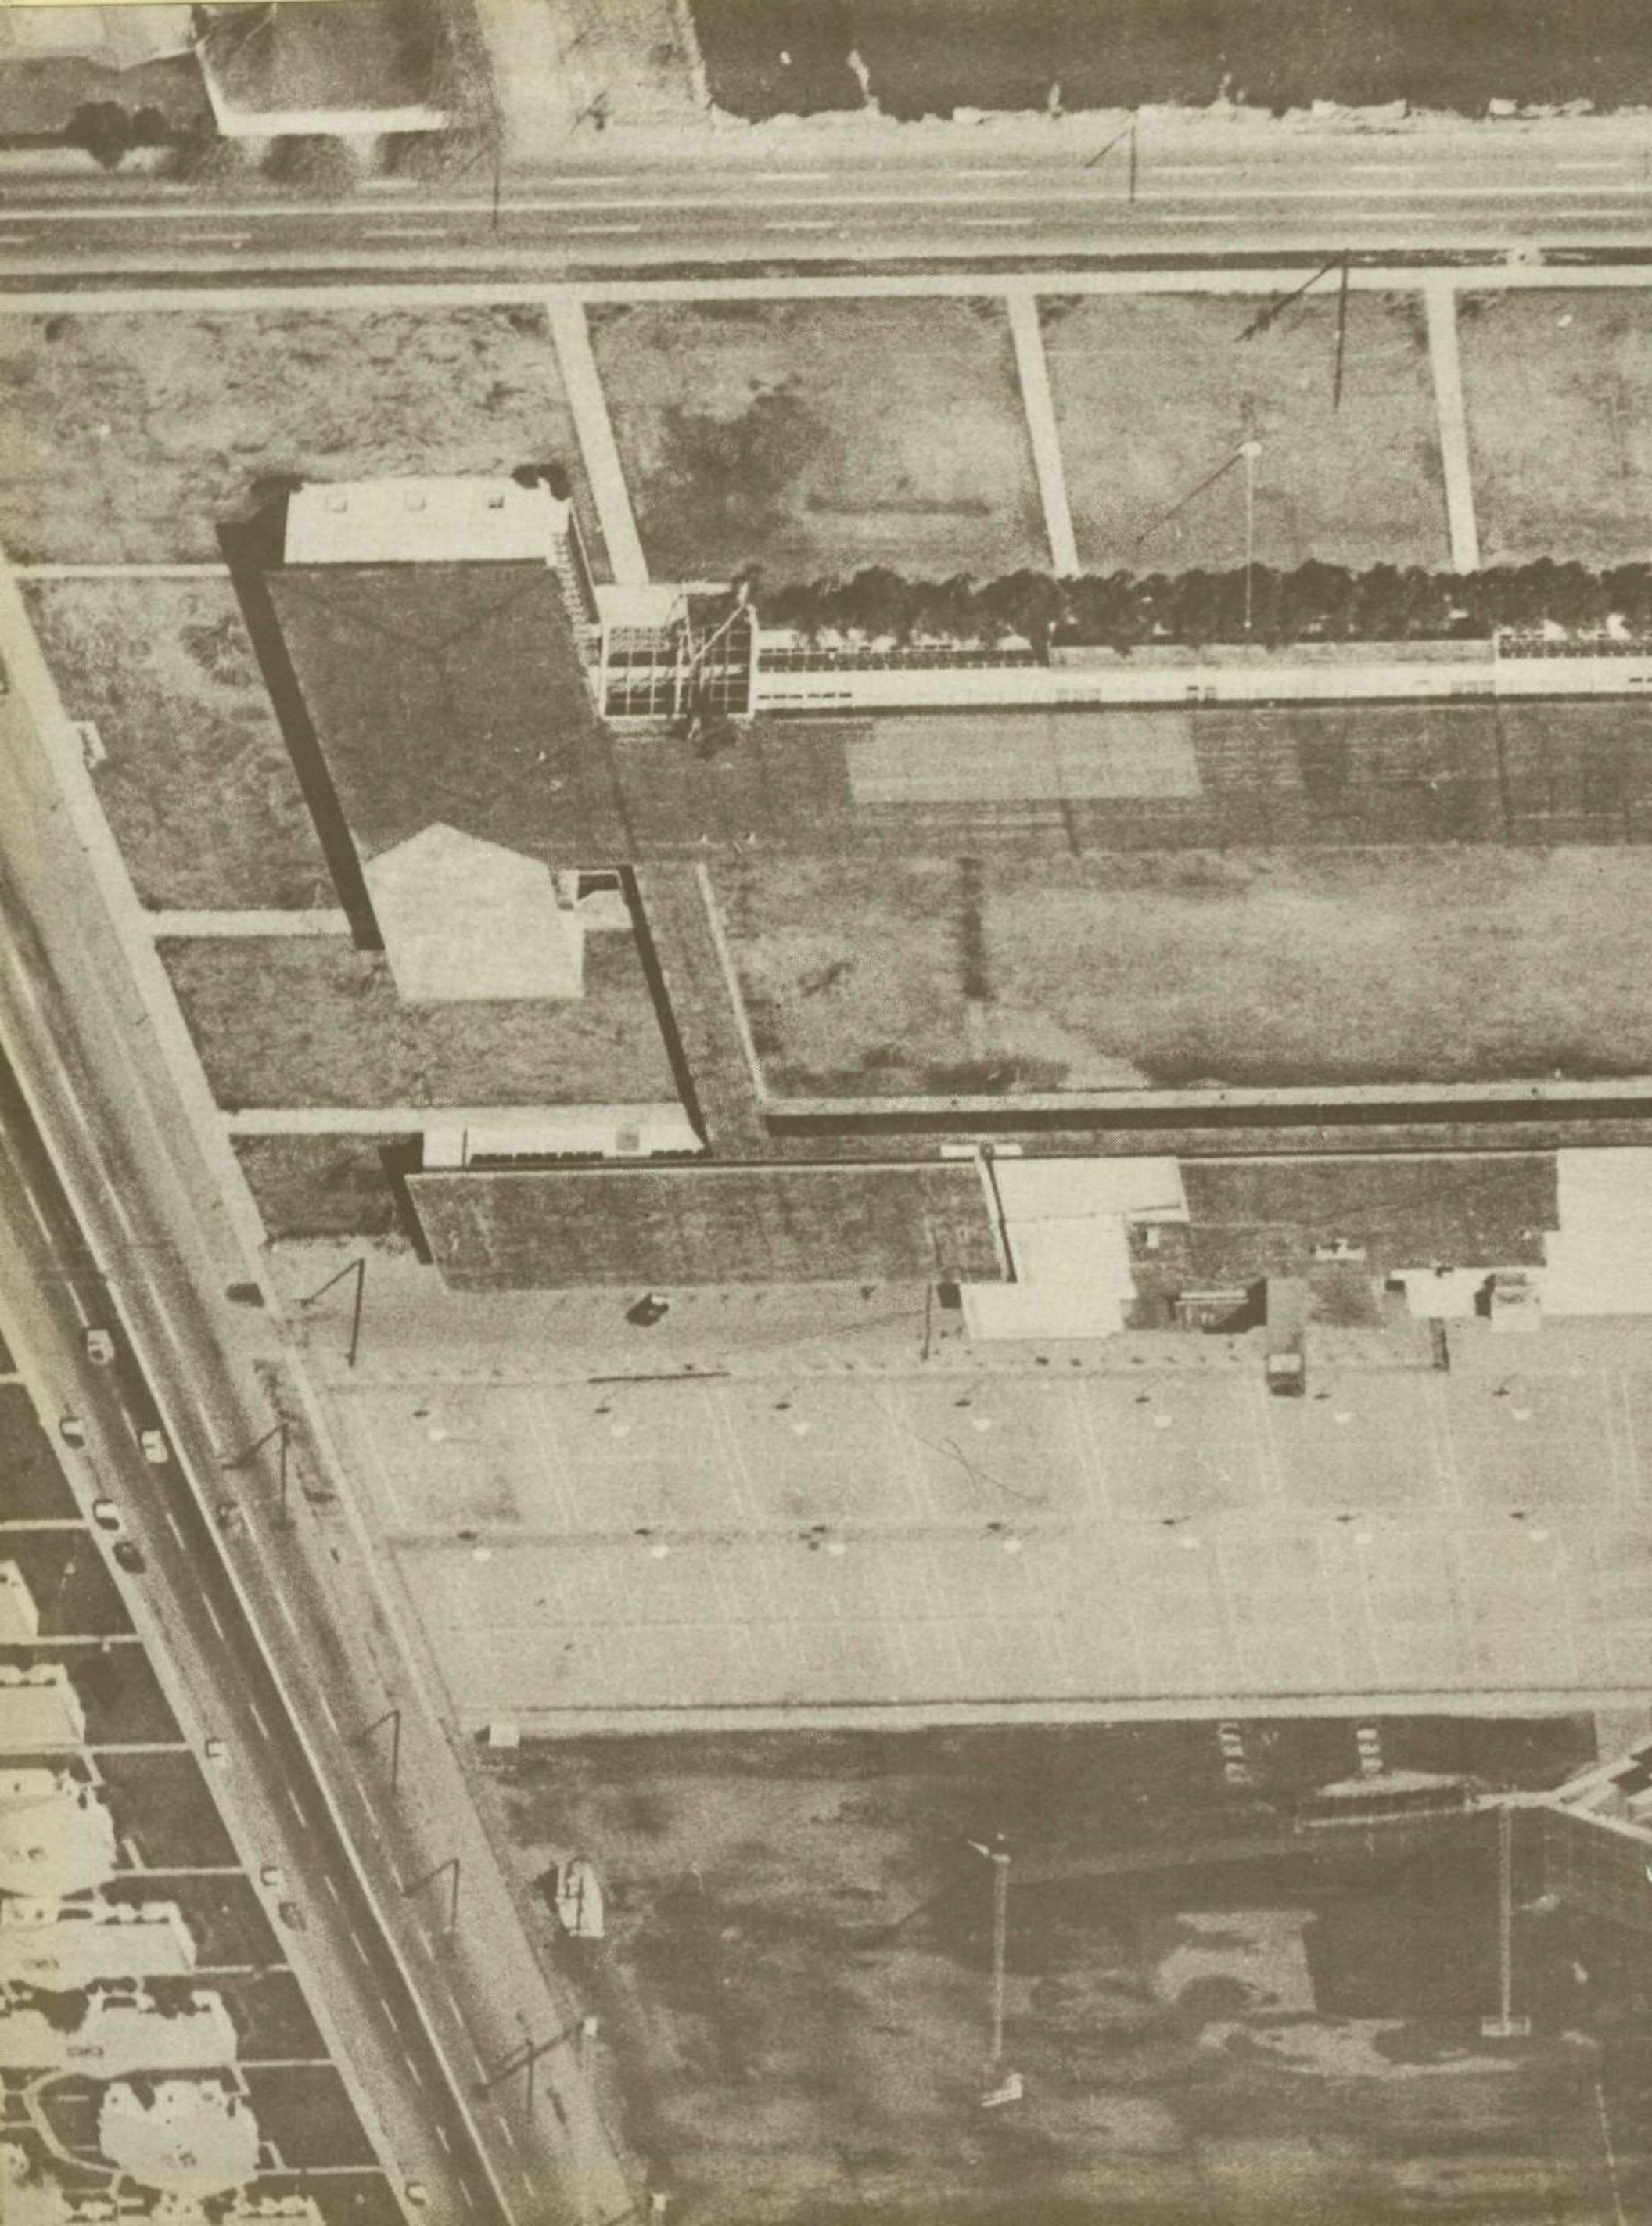
ART DEPARTMENT: Mr. John Sherman, Art Director; Sue Phillips, Art Editor; Janie Lucas and Bob Henderson for adding talent mixed with color to the pages, cover and serigraph pages.

COPY DEPARTMENT: Miss Elizabeth Titsworth, Copy Advisor; Bonnie Greatman, Feature Editor; Lynn Zendle and Stewart Schaeffer, Associate Feature Editors for depicting the life at West in words.

PUBLICATIONS DEPARTMENT: Miss Gladys Gollong, Business Advisor; Mr. Roswell Willard, Co-ordinator; Elaine Turken, Associate Editor, Shirley Hedges, Business Manager; Toni Bond, Managing Editor; Rodney Anne Crowe, Sections Editor; Dick Van Kirk, Sports Writer; Elaine Gorodezki, Bee Buchanan, Isabelle Rountree, Ann Driggs, and Sandra Chiate for piecing together the loose parts and doing much more.

JAHN-TYLER PRINTERS for being so patient and doing a good job. This is it . . . This is the New West . . . We hope you like it.

Your Editor,




Jo Phillips
